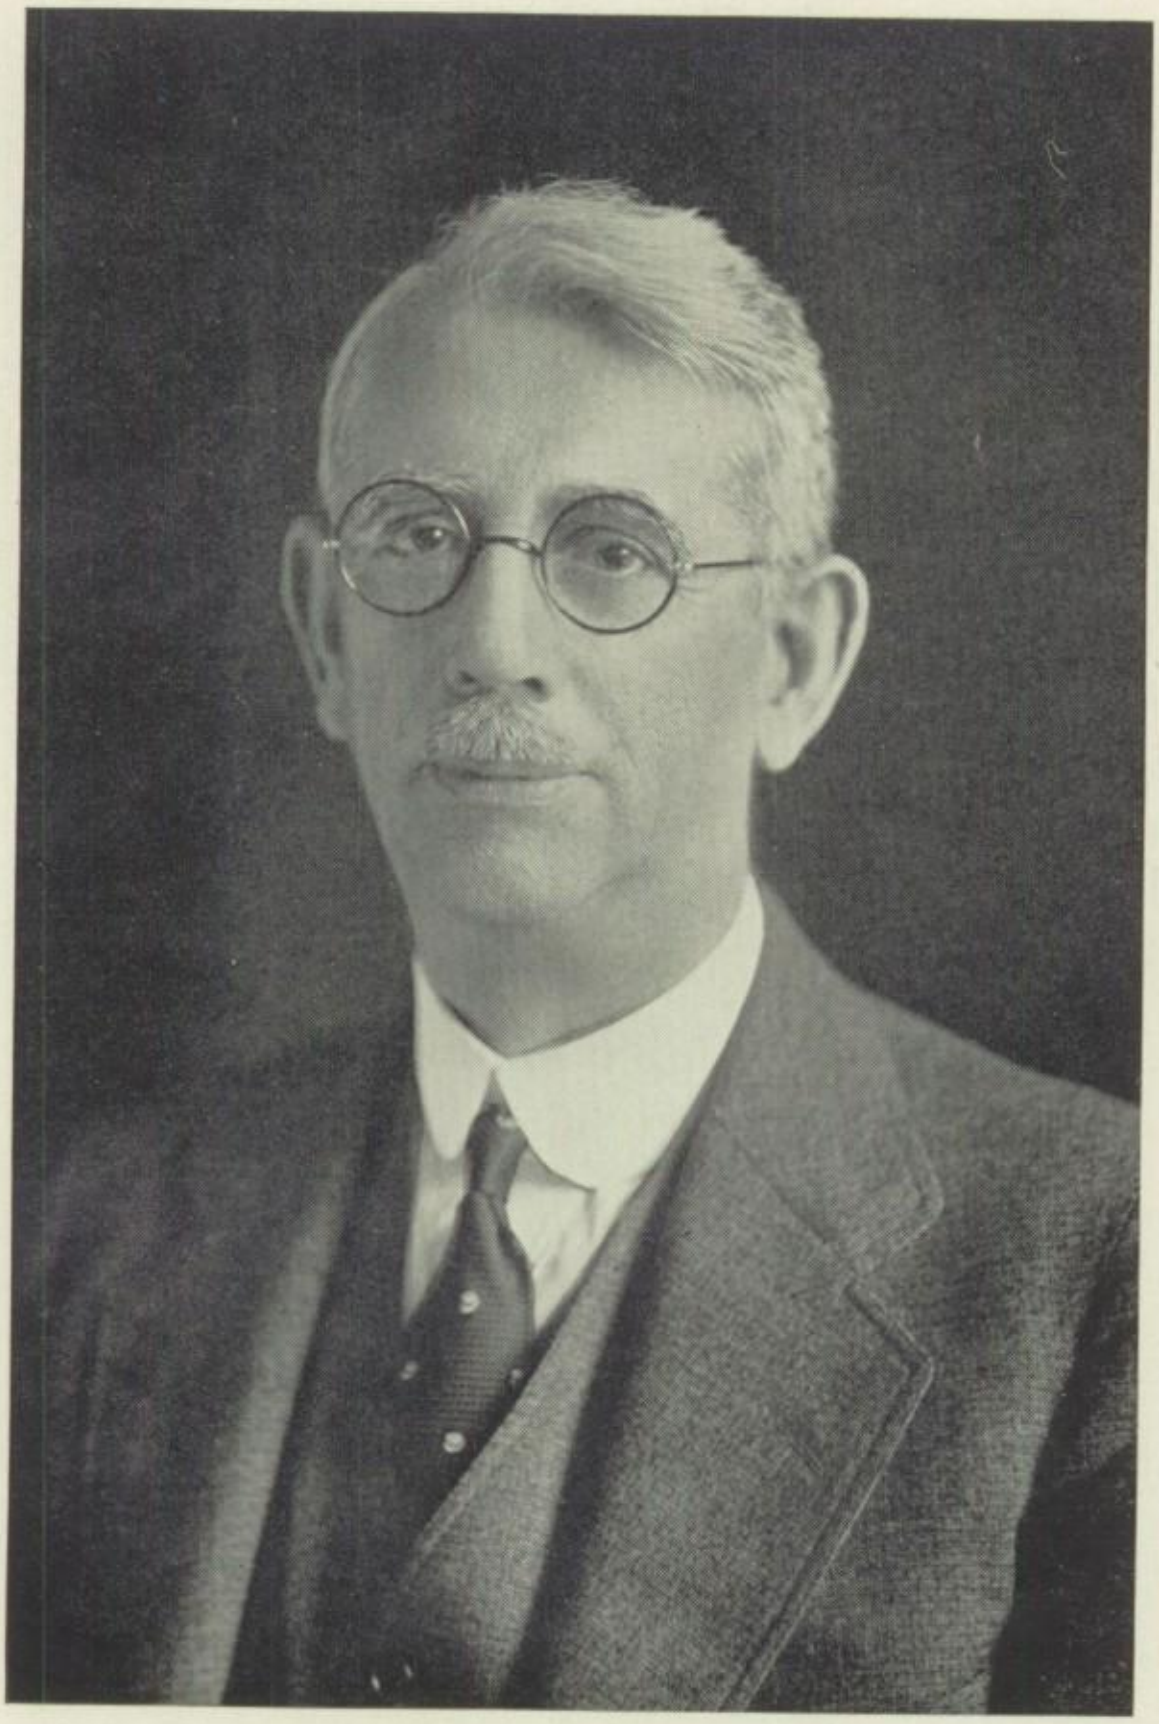
✝ In Memoriam ✝

We, the members of the class of 1937, of Hyde Park High School, inscribe this annual to the memory of Dr. Patrick T. Campbell, the late Superintendent of Schools, as a small but tangible sign of the esteem in which we shall forever hold him, for his sympathetic understanding of the problems of youth, and for his noble leadership along the paths of education.



DR. PATRICK T. CAMPBELL
Superintendent of Boston Schools
1932–1937

Foreword

The Senior Class takes this opportunity to thank Mr. Haley for his direction and support in all Senior activities.

Vasilika Adams

48 Spring Street Boston

Vasilika is a newcomer here, but already is very popular. Her chief aim is to become a teacher of mathematics.

Clara A. Andrews

57 Hemman Street Roslindale

When Clara becomes a full-fledged hair-dresser, she'll have to wave the boys' hair too.

Catherine M. Ahlberg

211 Delki Street Mattapan

Social Committee 2, Stunt Club 2

Attractive, witty, and smart describes Catherine perfectly. She always has an answer.

Rose Antosca

193 Cornell Street Roslindale

Spanish Club

"Quicker than a flash" is Rose's mind and smile when humor is afoot and gravity not far behind.

Annette E. Aiello

6 Regent Street Readville

All the fun in Room 210 was well supplied by this small but peppy little girl with her winning personality.

Claire Armstrong

89 River Street Dorchester

Yearbook Committee, Postscript 2, 3, Lieutenant 2, 3, Drill Teacher 4, Speed Club

Five feet tall, awfully sweet,
Just to know her is quite a treat,
Always smiling, always neat,
That's a record hard to beat.

Jean A. Albani

88 Stoughton Avenue Hyde Park

Red Cross 2, 3, 4, Basketball 3, 4

Here's that dark-eyed girl from the big town. We wonder what Dedham has that Hyde Park hasn't.

Samuel J. Arno

580 Metropolitan Ave., Hyde Park

Debating Club 4, Red Cross 3, 4, A. A. Representative, Track 3, 4, Social Committee 2, 3, Football 3, 4, Senior Show 3, 4, Amateur Show 4

"Sammy attends all the social activities, as you can judge from his record."

Catherine A. Alexander

83 Beacon Street Hyde Park

Catherine seems to be shy but when you know her you find that she really isn't.

Marie Arsenault

104 Roanoke Road Mattapan

Captain 2

Marie is a peppy, wide-awake little girl with flashing brown eyes. Rarely is Marie seen without her bright smile.

Charles E. Arthur

827 Hyde Park Ave., Hyde Park

Track 4

"Chick is a quiet lad but he sure can use his drafting equipment to good purpose."

Leslie E. Arthur, Jr.

827 Hyde Park Ave., Hyde Park

Track 2, 4, Football 3, 4

Ever quiet, But Oh! So thoughtful.

W. Barbara Asmus

17 Hamilton Street Readville

Drill Leader 4

Hailing from Readville, Barbara believes in keeping her interests in her own home town.

Joseph E. Assaf

3 Weston Street Hyde Park

Orchestra 2, 3, 4

A quiet fellow but my! You should hear him toot on his clarinet.

Winifred G. Aykroyd

117 Gordon Avenue Hyde Park

Basketball 2, 3, 4
Social Committee 2

"Windy" has her serious moments but they are few and far between. Also her silent ones.

George M. Bacher

86 Williams Avenue Hyde Park

Debating Club 4, Lieutenant 4

Outside George is a merry, dancing Romeo, but in school he is quiet, attentive, and studious.

Carolyn Baer

666 River Street Mattapan

Debating Club 4, Glee Club

Carol's soft drawl and dry humor have made her a popular and indispensable member of our graduating class.

Francis G. Bagge

1487 River Street Hyde Park

French Club, Year Book Committee, Postscript 3, Captain 4

Don't let his quiet manners fool you. Here is one of our dance enthusiasts.

Marie F. Bailey

22 Stellman Road Roslindale

Speed Club 4

We like her teasing spirit,
Her flashing, cheery smile,
And everything Marie does
Is bound to be worth while.

Natalie A. Baldwin

103 Highland Street Hyde Park

Sports Club 4, A. A. Representative, First Lieutenant 2, Basketball 3, 4

Nat's sense of humor is in accordance with her height. When she's around, there's never lack of fun.

Lillian Balicski

58 Ridge Road Mattapan

Lil is a little girl with big brown eyes, which are but a small part of a most sparkling personality.

Frederick A. Beake

Social Committee

Freddie has the air of a man about town and in fact has a pleasing personality. His one pride is his hair.

Willard F. Barnett

20 Woodland Place Hyde Park

Drum Corps 2, 3, 4

Barney is one of those trappers of 218 who catches animals that some scentless people call kitties.

Mina F. Belyea

27 Elm Street Hyde Park

Here's to the sweet poetic lady of 203. We wonder who owns that Ford roadster we see about town.

Joseph T. Barron

43 Summer Street Hyde Park

Joe deserves credit for being the only boy switchboard operator in the school.

Howard W. Benson

21 Easton Avenue Hyde Park

Buck Benny rides again with his chattering humor which has won him many friends.

Margaret M. Barton

208 Itasca Street Mattapan

Year Book Committee, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Classical Club 4

Rita is the girl with the Irish twinkle in her eye. She's another that doesn't prefer them tall, dark, and handsome

Richard W. Benson

35 Massasoit Street Mattapan

Football 4, Track 2, 3

Dick's departure from the old school will leave a gap hard to fill.

James W. Beach

36 New Bedford St., Hyde Park

We hear that "Jimmy" is an exceptionally good tennis player. We expect him to be another Ellsworth Vines.

Elena M. Bianchetto

124 Peter Street Roslindale

Elena's fun-loving spirit outweighs her occasional shyness, as much of the merriment in 108 has Elena for its source.

Everett C. Blades

4543 Washington St., W. Roxbury

If silence were golden he would be rich. He smiles off all his troubles.

Jeannette Bolan

196 Dwinell Street, W. Roxbury

Basketball 2, 3, Coach 4, Classical Club 3, French Club 3, Spanish Club, Christmas Play 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4

Jeannette's ambition is to become a doctor, but we think we'd rather see her act than let her cut us up.

Mary Borey

62 Summer Street Hyde Park

Mary's popularity at the Russian dances plus her unceasing host of honor roll certificates are evidence of her dual personality scholar and socialite.

John F. Brack

149 Rowe Street Roslindale

The pride of Mr. Seaburg. His witty remarks give 4M most of their laughs.

Henry L. Bregoli

73 Highland Street Hyde Park

2d Lieutenant 4, Baseball 3, 4

Henry is the reason why the Trojans have such a good baseball team. We hope to see Henry in the big league as pitcher in the near future.

Laurence V. Brindley

59 Blanchard Street Readville

Track 2, 3, Football 3, 4, Baseball, Senior Show 4, Classical Club

Larry keeps busy socially, athletically, and even scholastically.

Bernard M. Brown

14 Norton Street Readville

Two Gun Brown is known in the mountains of Readville as Jesse James.

Ida L. Brugnetti

48 Fremont Street Mattapan

Basketball 2, 3, Stunt Club 2, 3, Amateur Show 2, Year Book Committee

Ida is a popular and vivacious "little" girl who is going to dance her way to Heaven.

Algirdas J. Burdulis

14 Parker Street Mattapan

"Algy" frequently represents Mattapan on the honor roll. Do not trust him too much, as he is sometimes inclined to be a practical joker.

Clare M. Burns

28 Clifford Street Readville

Drill Leader 4, Dramatic Club 4, Second Lieutenant 4, Classical Club Basketball 2, Athletic Agent 2, 4, Year Book Committee

Clare's smile will always win,
A perfect leader in the gym.

Priscilla Byrne

11 Rockdale Street Mattapan

Dramatic Club 4, Lieutenant 2, French Club 4

Priscilla's keen sense of humor, inimitable giggle, and love for sports have made for her many lasting friends.

Dorcas Byrnes

48 Linden Street Readville

Our Dorcas is a quiet girl with a soft little laugh which she usually conceals behind her desk cover

Helen Campanella

68 Business Street Hyde Park

Sport Club 4, Stunt Club 2

Nothing ever worries Helen. She always wears a cheerful smile. We know she is going to make a good nurse.

Genevieve M. Campia

30 Linwood Street Hyde Park

Red Cross Representative 4

Jennie's sparkling brown eyes are quite noticeable. Her ability to dance, which is her hobby, is surpassed by few.

Mario Capulli

127 Newburn Street Hyde Park

Small in stature but he can and does pep up any gathering.

Louis Carbone

123 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, Baseball 3, Track 3, 4, Track Manager 4, Football 3, Second Lieutenant 4, Senior Show 4, Amateur Show 4

Louis has a knack in getting along with the teachers.

Edith M. Carlson

7 Hadwin Way Roslindale

Senior Show 2, 3, 4

Edith is an ardent admirer of skiing and an active participant in this favorite winter sport.

Mildred Carpenter

24 Davison Street Hyde Park

Basketball 2, 3, 4, Red Cross 3, 4, Social Committee 2, Year Book Committee

Star in athletics; "A" student and a Modern Venus. Just an All American Girl.

Robert L. Carr

24 Chittick Road Hyde Park

Year Book Committee, Lieutenant 3, Captain 4

Bob is the Romeo of Room 17 with his golden locks and his alluring smile.

Irene K. Carroll

8 Damon Place Readville

Speed Club 4

Short but snappy. What is it about bow ties that Irene likes? With a laugh always ready she's been our little ray of sunshine in Room 110.

Robert J. Carroll

134 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

A. A. Representative, Track 2,3

Bob possesses that rare quality of being able to keep out of trouble along with a sense of humor that is sure to be an asset to him in whatever following he chooses.

Armando J. Casciano

52 Garfield Avenue Hyde Park

His ways are those of quietness yet of a pleasing style.

Beatrice A. Cass

10 Safford Street Hyde Park

Year Book Committee, A. A. Representative, Amateur Show 4, Glee Club 2, 4, Senior Show

The sincerity of Betty's voice makes us wonder to whom she is singing.

John Cheever

135 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

A. A. Representative, Drum Corps

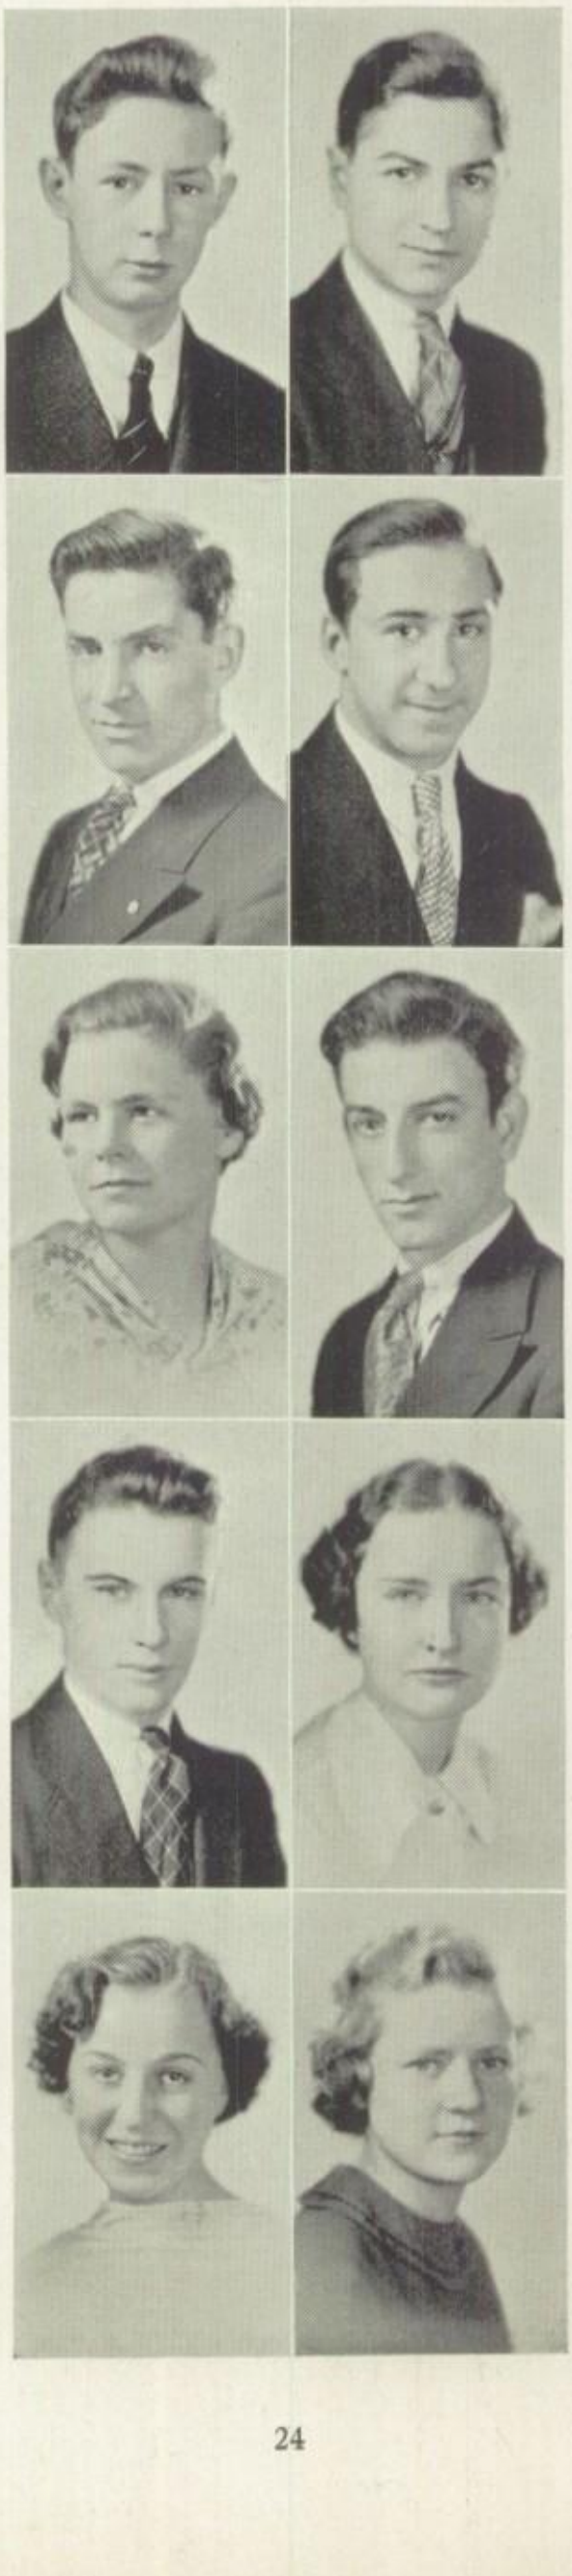
Another trapper of 218. Mr. Keelon will be relieved when John and his two stooges are paroled from school.

Philomena I. Chludinski

236 Reservation Road Hyde Park

Class President 3, First Lieutenant 2, Speed Club 4, Senior Show

Our blonde "Minnie," one of our most popular girls, has a charming personality and blushes easily.



Nicholas Ciriello

90 Stoughton Avenue Readville

Nickie is the little big shot of Room 17. His intentions seem to be to follow in the footsteps of Barney Oldfield.

Anthony T. Civitarese

36 Ramsdell Avenue Roslindale

Tony is a milkman who gathers his night sleep in English.

Bernard Civitarese

76 Arlington Street Hyde Park

Baseball 3, 4, Track 4

An unassuming lad but who can tell?

Claire Claffey

613 Hyde Park Ave., Roslindale

Speed Club

Claire is a "cheerful little earful" —for she shall spread happiness wherever she goes. Studying aviation is her hobby.

Deborah M. Clifford

52 Milton Avenue Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, French Club 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Classical Club 4, Year Book Committee 4

The saying that gentlemen prefer blondes certainly proves true in Deb's case. It may also be said about Deb that ladies prefer blondes too.

Charlotte M. Cliggett

243 Itasca Street Mattapan

Charlotte is a sweet kid with many friends. Although she is very quiet in school, we doubt her silence outside.

Walter N. Cochrane

16 Wolcott Street Readville

Baseball 2, 4, Football 4

Mickey is one of the boys from Readville. His cheerful nature makes him popular among pupils and teachers.

Robert W. Coffin

30 Bismarck Street Mattapan

A lad who works hard and talks little.

Marion B. Colella

27 Readville Street Readville

Behind Marion's quiet exterior lies a brilliant mind and a generous spirit. Her refined manner has won her many friends.

James J. Condon

60 Riverview St. West Roxbury

Amateur Show 4, Senior Show 4, Social Committee 4, Year Book 4

Between selling range oil and setting up pins, the "Jeep" has all he can do to do his homelessons.

Helen E. Connolly

317 Wood Avenue Hyde Park

French Club 2, 3, 4, Classical Club 4

With her dimpled smile Betty has won all our hearts. She aspires to be an "angel of mercy."

Elizabeth Cook

15 Rockdale Street Mattapan

First Lieutenant 3, Social Committee 4, Basketball 2, 3, Journalism 3, Captain 4

They wrote a song about our "Cookie" but it couldn't do her justice in describing her smile and pleasant disposition.

J. Russell Cook

84 Williams Avenue Hyde Park

Russ is a silent but brilliant fellow who speaks only words of wisdom.

Mary A. Cook

34 Neponset Avenue Hyde Park

Senior Show 4

"Cookie's" pleasing smile and pleasant disposition prove that she is not so shy as we think she is.

George L. Cooper

15 Roxana Street Hyde Park

First Lieutenant 4, Marshal 4

George is a busy boy who thoroughly enjoys his school work.

John F. Cooper

56 Neponset Avenue Roslindale

Football 2, 3, 4, Baseball 2, 3, 4

Our star left half back has a fine personality and is therefore very popular.

Francis X. Cronin

18 Lexington Avenue Hyde Park

Red Cross 2, Captain 4, Marshal 4, Track 2, 3, 4, Baseball 3, 4, Class Treasurer 2, 3

One of our Track stars "X" leaves a good record behind him.

Mary E. Cornyn

10 Rockdale Street Mattapan

Captain 3, 4, Orchestra 3, 4, A. A. Representative 2, Debating Club 4, Speed Club 2

"Mae's" curly dark hair and mischievous brown eyes are her greatest assets. Where there's noise—there's Mae.

Dorothy A. Crook

63 Pierce Street Hyde Park

Speed Club 4, Social Committee 3, Senior Show 2

"Dot" certainly has a way about her—her own way! What is the secret of your success as a secretary, Dot?

John Corrigan

45 Prospect Street Hyde Park

Football 4, Track 4, Baseball 4

John is a fugitive athlete from St. John's Prep.

Frances R. Cullen

50 Lexington Avenue Hyde Park

French Club 3, 4, Year Book Committee, Social Committee 4, Sport Club 4

If, as they say, light hearts live long, "Babe" will never die. Her motto is, "Sing away sorrow, Cast away care."

Edith M. Cotton

11 DeForest Street Hyde Park

The fact that Edith does not talk very much does not mean that she is not popular. Just look at her sparkling eyes and winning smile.

George E. Curley

1565 River Street Hyde Park

French Club, Classical Club

George likes outdoor athletics and homelessons.

Ruth P. Coulsey

160 W. Selden Street Mattapan

Stunt Club 2

Full of fun, that's Ruth, and that's why she makes so many friends.

Kathleen M. Curley

15 Grant Street Hyde Park

Classical Club 3, Year Book Committee

Kay is a very popular young lady with a sunny smile and a sunnier disposition.

Edith R. Curtis

325 Wood Avenue Hyde Park

Year Book, Speed Club 4

Edie is the cute little Miss from 102 whose sparkling eyes and cheery disposition have placed her foremost in the hearts of all her classmates and friends.

Eleanor T. Daley

7 Dell Avenue Hyde Park

Year Book, Speed Club, Dramatic Club, Stunt Club 2, 3, 4, Basketball 2

Eleanor is a curly headed girl with a bright smile and cheerful disposition.

Josephine E. Dardinski

279 Wood Avenue Hyde Park

A. A. Representative 2

Jo's "peaches and cream" complexion is the envy of all us girls.

Muriel E. Darling

49 DeForest Street Hyde Park

Wouldn't we be shocked if Muriel ever yelled out loud! Nevertheless, she is full of fun and everyone likes her.

Mary DeChristopher

1438 Blue Hill Avenue Mattapan

Mary is more or less of a quiet personality. Generous, friendly, and nice.

Fred Delcorso

101 Alabama Street Mattapan

Second Lieutenant 4

If you ever visit Mattapan at night, you will see Fred. He is the boy who yells "Extra! Get an Extra!"

Ernest H. Deleconio

38 Business Street Hyde Park

Football 3, 4, Track 2, 3, 4, Captain 3, Amateur Show 4

"Jake" likes to take things lightly. His swell sense of humor supplies plenty of laughs for his pals.

Ralph J. DeLuca

6 Oak Place Hyde Park

Track 4

When you've got a heavy date, see Ralph and get some tips on charm.

William T. DeMeritt

61 Arlington Street Hyde Park

That star forward on the "Rangers" basketball team at the Y. M. C. A.

Walter M. Dempsey Jr.

16 Reddy Avenue Hyde Park

Year Book, Baseball, 4 Track 2, Senior Show 4, Amateur Show 4

Good - natured, well - dressed. That's Bud.

Daniel DeRienzo

19 Taft Place Roslindale

Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Red Cross 3, Senior Show 4, Amateur Show 4, Social Committee 3, 4

"Danny" is the leader of the "Rhythm Kings," a swing orchestra.

Chester J. Derzanski

8 Louise Park Roxbury

Debating Club, Year Book Committee

Chet is an import from Memorial High School, who came here to beam his cheerful smile in Hyde Park High's corridors.

Joseph A. DeSantis

144 Readville Street Readville

Joe is the big strong gruff top sergeant of the seventh company.

John J. Dever

43 Wachusett Street Mattapan

French Club 3

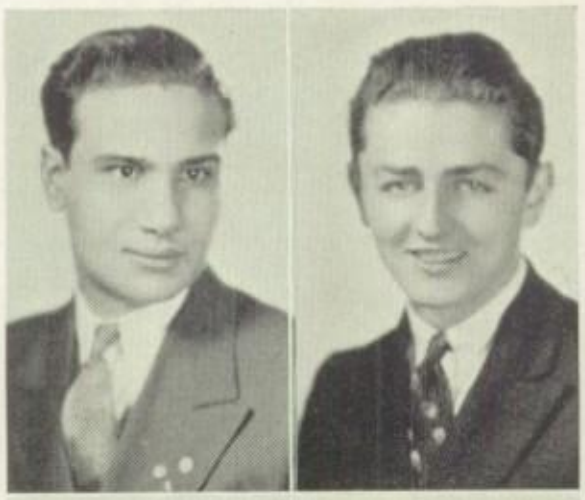
John's slow, serious drawl may be heard from time to time in earnest argument.

Leo F. Devine

29 Blake Street Mattapan

Track, 2, 3, Baseball 3, 4, Classical Club 4

Leo likes to delve into books and gain the most from them, and we are sure that he will be well paid for his efforts in the end.



Thomas J. Devine

177 East Milton Street Readville

Tom is well liked by all his classmates. A scholar, a jokester and, last but not least, he has a winning smile.

Margaret R. DiMarzio

34 Stoughton Avenue Readville

Lieutenant 2

Margaret is a good looking miss who always manages to slip in just before the last bell. Her happy-go-lucky disposition has won her a host of friends

Joseph J. Donovan

44 Charne Avenue Roslindale

Track 4

Joe talks about the army so much we are wondering if he would make a good general. We think he has a good line of defense.

Kathleen M. Donovan

46 Bradstreet Avenue Roslindale

Red Cross 4, Social Committee 4, Dramatic Club 4

Kay's our tribute to the list of brown-eyed blondes. This little girl is full of laughter, pep, vim, and vigor, and how!

Lawrence P. Downing

70 Summer Street Hyde Park

Track 3, Football 3, Senior Show 4

Larry is the book critic of 218 (not school books). Who said nonchalance is not a virtue?

Evelyn M. Doyle

870 Canterbury St. Roslindale

Captain 2, 3, 4, Drill Leader 4, A. A. Representative 3, Senior Show 4

We present for your approval our version of Hyde Park's model school girl!

Dorothy A. Drislane

91 Newburn Street Hyde Park

French Club 3, 4, Classical Club 3, 4, Basketball, 2, 3, 4

Introducing "Dot," that cute kid with sparkling blue eyes and deep dimples. We think there's a bright future ahead, "Dot."

Warren E. Drury

10 Blake Street Mattapan

Classical Club 3, 4, Business Manager Year Book 4, Red Cross 3, Vice President Dramatic Club 4, Social Committee 2, 3, A. A. Representative 4, Baseball 2, 4, Track 2, 3, 4 First Lieutenant 4, Senior Show 4

"Jeemes's" success in both track and social life makes him well-known to all.

Agnes E. Dunn

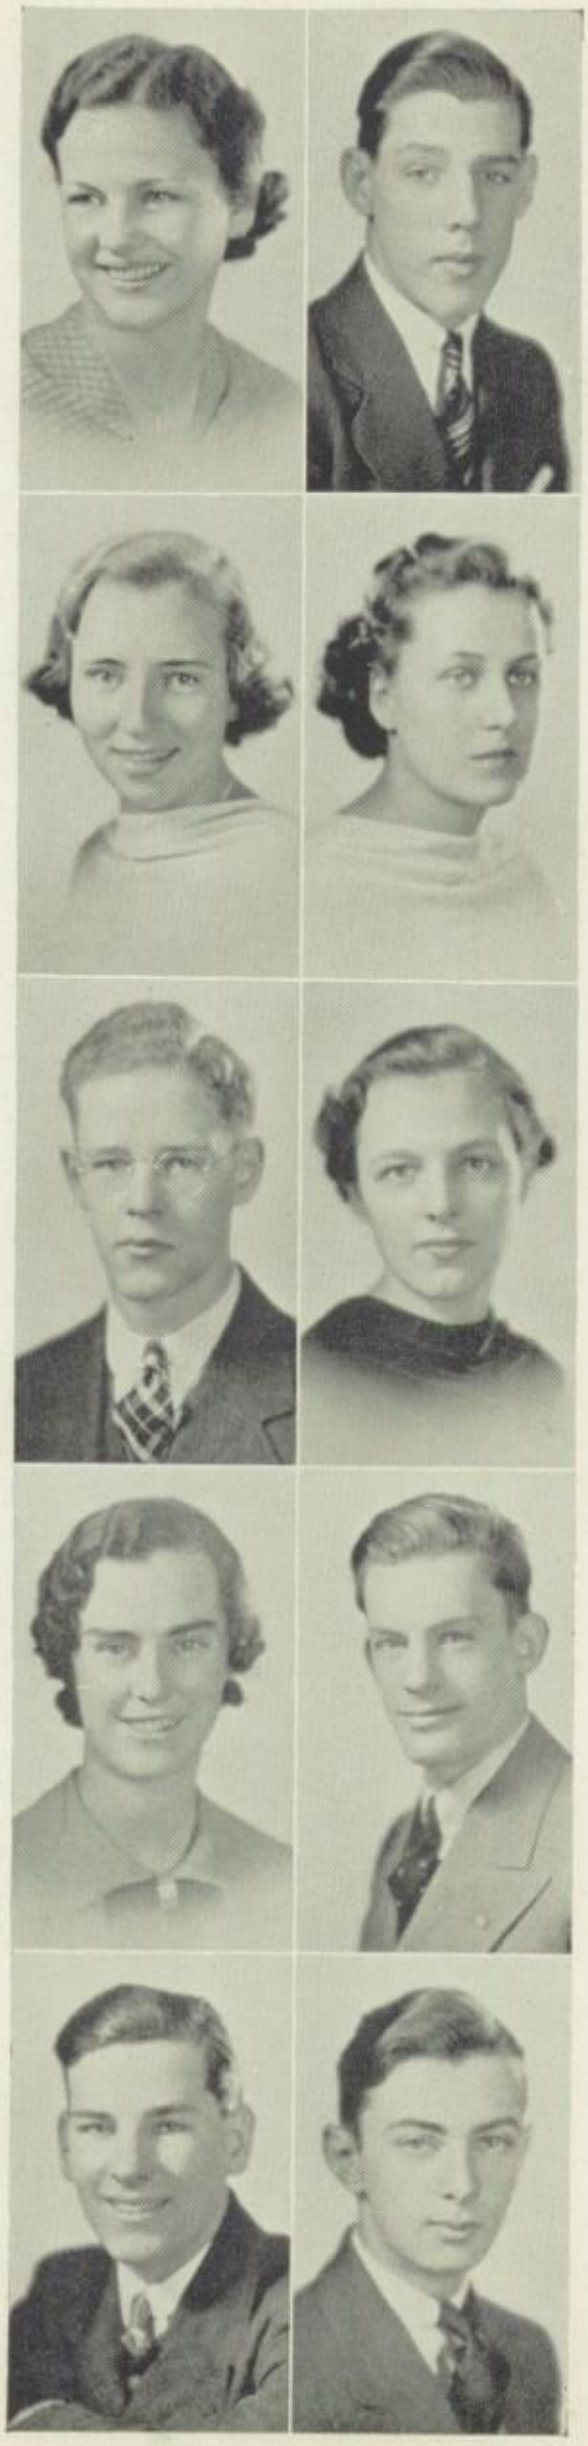
147 Washington St. Hyde Park

Presenting a petite miss whose untiring courtesy is admired. She possesses a permanent twinkle in her eye.

George D. Dunphy

37 Taft Street Dorchester

Here is the lucky boy who drives a Plymouth to school every day. He's always looking for a good time.



Robert A. Edwards

79 Arlington Street Hyde Park

Spanish Club 2, Senior Show 4, Dramatic Club 4, Red Cross 2, 3, 4, Social Committee 2

"Eddie" can usually be found at the local "Y" where the Rangers say he's the tops in Basketball.

Ruth H. Farnham

104 Highland Street Hyde Park

Social Committee 3, Year Book Committee 4, Secretary of Dramatic Club 4

Ruth is one of our most popular girls, although her heart is at higher institutions. She's what we call an "All-American" girl.

Margaret E. Farrell

15 Park Street Hyde Park

"Peggy's" gleaming hazel eyes are only one of her many attractions. When it comes to dancing she has what it takes.

Joseph Feldman

86 Lawrence Avenue Roxbury

A quiet lad from whom great things may be expected.

Joseph W. Ferris

75 Davison Street Hyde Park

Classical Club, Social Representative, Senior Show 4

Joe is a critic on what the well dressed man should wear. He's headed for the high seas, perhaps.

Helen T. Ferzoco

6 Cross Street Readville

"Fuzzy", the popular girl hailing all the way from the wilds of Readville, has shown her ability in dancing and may always be found amidst a laughing group.

Patsy J. Ferzoco

53 W. Milton Street Readville

Dramatic Club 4, Lieutenant 4, Debating Club 4

Though Pat is usually serious-minded, he shows just enough of his sense of humor to indicate a good general disposition.

David W. Findlay

625 Metropolitan Ave. Hyde Park

Football 4, Baseball 3, 4

"Huck" is a "reg'lar feller" in sports and classes and has earned a certain notoriety as a member of the mighty "Rangers."

Mildred P. Fisher

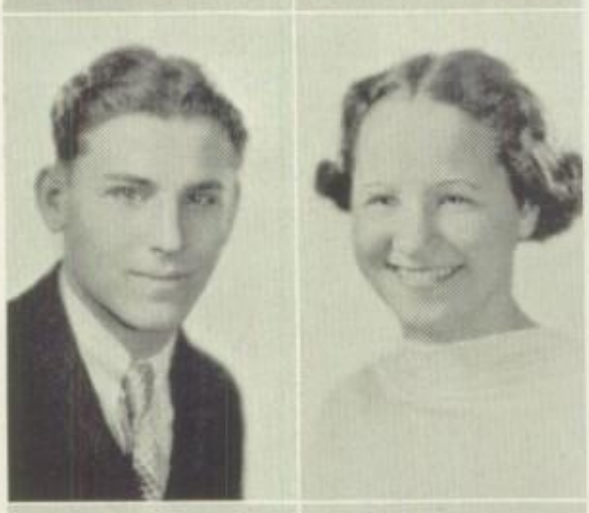
118 Cornell Street Roslindale

"Milly" is one of those girls who seems to know everyone in the school. What will a certain teacher do without her next year?

Ruth H. Flaherty

221 Reservation Road Hyde Park

Ruthie is the worry of Miss Munster's life because she barely makes the 8.45 bell each morning. Nevertheless Ruthie always arrives.



Theresa M. Flanagan

1154 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Theresa's cheery smile and quick answers are appreciated by all who know her, and that means almost everybody in Hyde Park.

Barbara A. Foley

568 Cummins Highway, Mattapan

We wonder why "Babs" gazes out of the window so dreamily. Is it another trip to Ireland that you're planning?

Mary J. Foley

19 Malta Street Mattapan

French Club 4, A. A. Representative 3

If patience, ability, and steadiness lead to success, Mary will some day be seen at the top of the proverbial ladder.

Margaret E. Foley

32 Hillside Street Hyde Park

Classical Club, Red Cross 2

Marge's hobby must be giggling. Although she lives near Smith's she skates at Muddy's.

Elsie J. Fontenarosa

1426 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Classical Club 3, Social Committee 3, Drill Leader 4

Elsie is Hyde Park's "glamor" girl. Her dramatic ability and red-headed loveliness will surely pave her way to stardom.

George Fuller

82 Blake Street Mattapan

"Blondy" pays many visits to Milton.

Franklin Murray Gabriel

646 Metropolitan Ave. Hyde Park

French Club 3, 4, Vice President Classical Club 3, Year Book Committee, Dramatic Club, Track 2, 3, 4, Postscript 2, 3, Senior Show 4, Debating Club 3

"Gabe" would do away with Latin and make track a major subject

Mary F. Gaffney

83 Maynard Street Roslindale

Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4, Year Book Committee, Senior Show 4

Mary's personality and dancing, not to speak of her acting ability and good looks, make her a popular girl.

Mildred T. Gaglio

468 Metropolitan Ave. Hyde Park

Mil, a curly-headed, dark-eyed little lady, is quite mysterious about herself. We do know she has another half—a twin.

Peter J. Gaglio

468 Metropolitan Ave. Hyde Park

Baseball 4, Track 2, 3, 4, Senior Show 4, Amateur Show 4

"They can't shove this math down my throat forever, I hope."

Raymond S. Galanif

11 Allen Street Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 2

Raymond can often be found at the Arena watching the bone-crushers do their work.

Vera Galante

1880 River Street Hyde Park

Speed Club 4

Vera's sense of humor and friendly charm have won for her a place in the hearts of all Hyde Park students.

Eleanor M. Galvin

30 Mildred Avenue Mattapan

Basketball 2

"El" seems to be a quiet young lady, but some of her wisecracks make us wonder if she is as angelic as she appears.

James W. Garland

46 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

Social Committee 2, Year Book Committee

"Jim" is the strong man of 115. Where he gets his strength is his secret and our mystery.

Jacqueline M. Gavin

27 Freeman Place Mattapan

Sports Club 4, Dramatic Club 4

"Jackie" is more or less a girl with bells on her toes—Yep! you guessed it—a snappy tap dancer.

Marguerite Giles

989 River Street Hyde Park

A. A. Representative 3, Red Cross 3, 4, Recording Secretary, Red Cross 4, Speed Club 4

If at first you don't succeed, ask Marguerite. The initiative and quick wit she displays make her one of our best-liked classmates.

Henry F. Glazewski

29 Arlington Street Hyde Park

Senior Show 3, 4, Amateur Show 4

"Polo" hopes some day to be a cleaner-upper on a Kentucky Derby winner.

Marion Goldberg

45 Walter Street Hyde Park

Postscript 2, 3, Associate Editor 3, Senior Show 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4, Year Book

Our blonde, versatile "Goldie" will long be remembered for her varied talents—especially her dramatic monologues and journalistic creations.

Evelyn R. Grant

42 Charles Street Hyde Park

Debating Club 4, Year Book, Social Committee 2, 3, Red Cross 2, Senior Show 4, First Lieutenant 2, 3

Evie's the attractive blonde from 108 for whom there is such a demand.

Ettore J. Gregory

26 Garfield Avenue Hyde Park

Ettore is one of those students who gets good marks without much difficulty.

John W. Griffin

19 Reddy Avenue Hyde Park

Track 3, 4, Football 4, Classical Club 4, French Club 3, A Honor Roll 3, Social Committee 3, Baseball 3

His tactics on the football field may not have made him a hero, but some people call him the handle "Bumpy."

Margaret M. Griffin

807 River Street Hyde Park

Margie is another of the inmates of 110—quiet, but with a dash of humor that will come out every now and then. I'm afraid books, especially history, are not her style.

Mildred E. Grono

6 Summer Street Hyde Park

Senior Show 4

Millie's greatest asset is her sense of humor. A sunny disposition and her infectious laugh have made her popular.

Frances M. Gruberski

17 Perkins Avenue Hyde Park

Basketball 1, Stunts 3, 4, Captain 4

"Fran" may be seen in the Gym leading the little sophomores in stunts. Is she good? She's superb.

Raymond J. Gutowski

70 Water Street Hyde Park

Social Committee 2, Red Cross Committee 3, 4

Great things are expected of Raymond. An all A honor roll student who is very helpful and one swell fellow.

Gladys F. Habenicht

12 Lexington Avenue Hyde Park

First Lieutenant 2, Vice President 3, A. A. Representative 2, Red Cross 3, 4, Drill Leader 4

"Johnnie" is "Everything your little heart desires" all wrapped up in one which accounts for her being swarmed with so many admirers.

Ruth H. C. Hansen

17 Vernon Street Hyde Park

Ruth is one of our quiet, dignified girls. She is very fond of drawing, and we know she is going to become an artist.

Mary I. Harrington

703 Hyde Park Ave. Roslindale

Introducing the demure miss whose lovable smile has become a part of 108. Mary's congenial nature makes her success inevitable.

Peter Hartian

19 Winthrop Street Hyde Park

Peter can usually be found studying bookkeeping in his spare time. He will probably be a bookkeeper in his father's store.

Ruth L. Hawley

50 Thatcher Street Hyde Park

Basketball 3, Debating Club 4

Attractive Ruthie always tops the list in the type tests.

Alfred B. Hayes

127 Arlington Street Hyde Park

Wherever Al goes there is bound to be fun. He is the wit of the Merchandising class.

Barbara L. Heatley

3 Greenwood Square Hyde Park

Year Book Committee

Babs possesses titian tresses that have received many an admiring glance. Here's a girl who will make someone an ideal secretary.

Rita Henderson

80 Austin Street Hyde Park

Basketball 2, Speed Club 4

Rita is well-liked by her Dedham boy friends who occupy most of her time. She aspires to become a private secretary.

Theodore O. Hesse

47 Savin Hill Avenue Dorchester

Track 2, 3

Otto hopes in later years to get over his bashfulness. He is a good friend and student nevertheless.

Gerald F. Hogan

50 Sunnyside Street Hyde Park

French Club 3, Senior Show 4, Red Cross, Classical Club

"Jerry's" talkative and explosive manner enables him to take on any of the brutes in our class.

Malcolm J. Hogan

50 Sunnyside Street Hyde Park

Football 2, Basketball 4, Lieutenant 4, Senior Show, Red Cross Representative

Shanty's life ambition is to become a he-man and shave twice a week instead of once a year.

Corinne C. Holden

60 Sprague Street Readville

Dramatic Club 4, Stunt Club 2, 3, 4, Basketball 2, 3, 4

Corinne is about the best basketball center there is. She is better at art, however, as her drawings prove.

Vincent P. Holland

601 River Street Mattapan

Football 2, 3, Second Lieutenant 4, Marshal 4, Baseball 4

His fine personality and wit have made many friends.

Ruth K. Hurley

117 Almont Street Mattapan

Speed Club 4

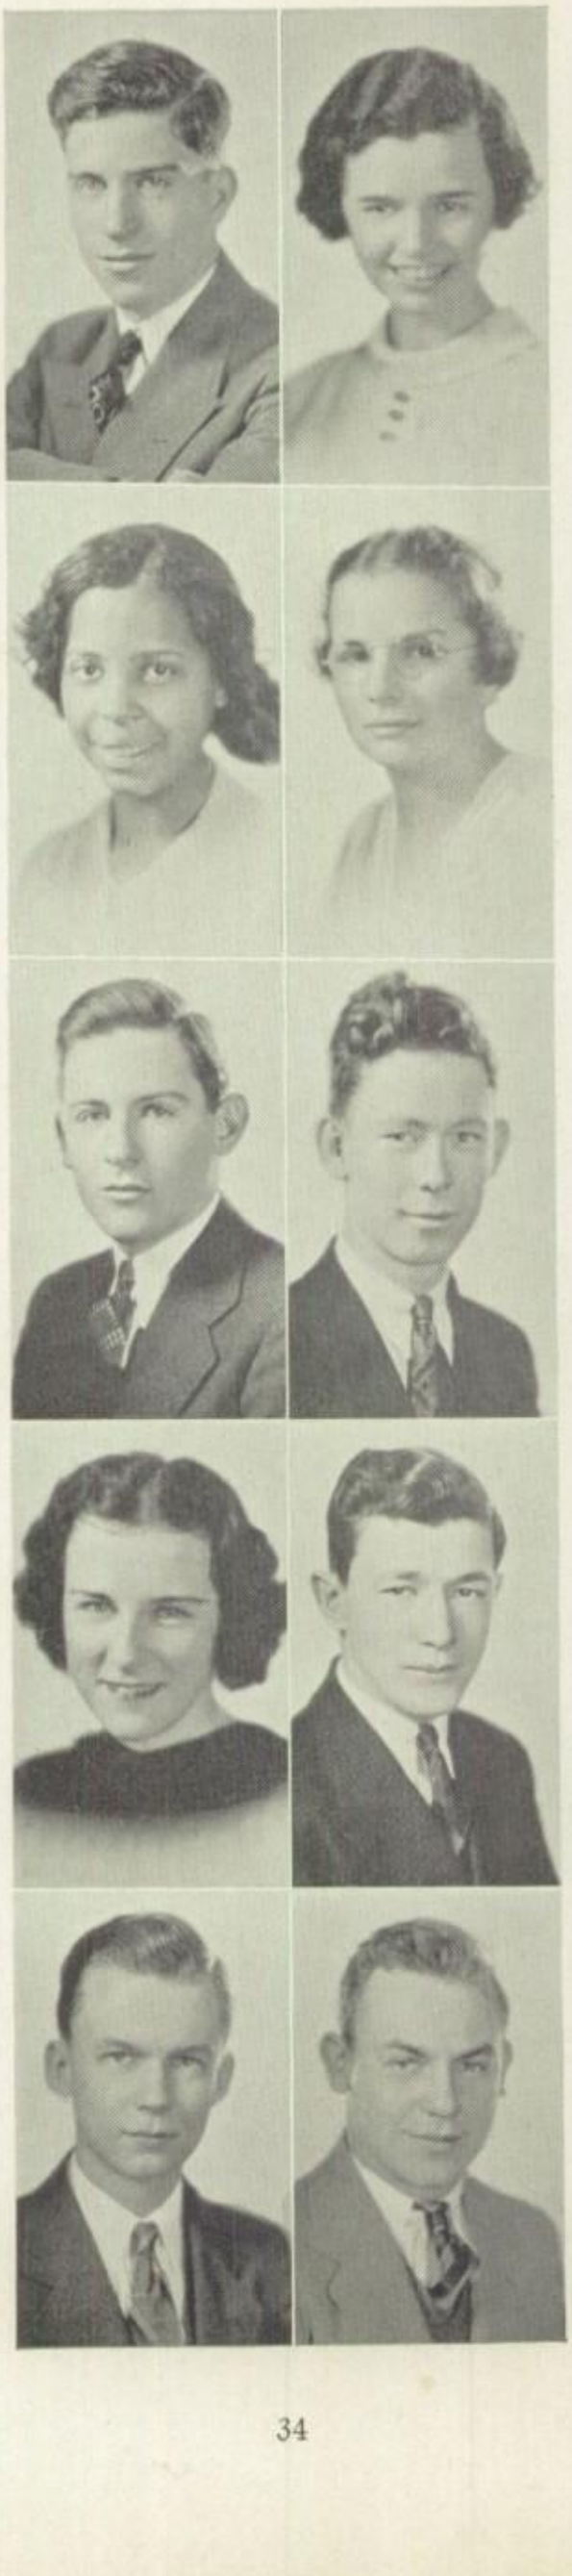
Two attractive dimples
Lighting up her face
Lend a happy spirit
To her pride and grace.

Arthur M. Hvoslef

35 Norway Park Hyde Park

Second Lieutenant 4, Marshal 4

One of the few boys of Room 121 who really enjoys studying. "Art" intends to enter Boston University next September.



Lena F. Ialenti

807 River Street Hyde Park

Basketball 2, 3, Classical Club 3, French Club 3

Lena is that tall girl in 201 who is a very good artist. We wonder if she frosts her cup cakes artistically.

Adelaide M. Innes

24 Springhill Road Hyde Park

French Club 3, Vice President, Dramatic Club 4, Drill Leader 4

It's remarkable what Addie can do with her own class in setting-up drill! We're wondering what the attraction is at "Michigan."

Harold B. Jackson

Second Lieutenant 4, Year Book Committee, Marshall 4

"Percy" has high hopes of becoming either a professional hockey or baseball player. He is a natural born player in both of these sports.

Roger Jank

13 Austin Street Hyde Park

Roger is the small lad who is always hustling to get his homework done. Maybe it's because his next class is in sight.

Wilfred Xavier Jean

1060 River Street Hyde Park

Year Book Committee

Jean, a newcomer from B. L. S., impresses by his studious attitude and friendly smile.

Bertha Jenkins

46 Summer Street Hyde Park

Glee Club, Debating, Sports Club 2, Speed Club

"Red" is air-minded and we think she would look snappy in the uniform of an air hostess.

Alexander M. Karbevich

139 Child Street Hyde Park

Karbey gives many a version of the modern poultry man. He has acquired the name of "Chief of the Kids."

John Jerome

14 Westminster Street Hyde Park

Social Committee 4

Ah yes! Muscles! A great fellow who, only because of his good nature, takes so much kidding.

Catherine A. Keefe

122 Central Avenue Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, Postscript 3

Kay's popularity may be attributed to her enviable personality. A winsome smile, plus scholastic ability have won for her a high standing.

Elwin S. Jewett

144 Beaver Street Hyde Park

Year Book Committee, President of Classical Club

Elwin is captivated by the charms of New Hampshire.

Harry Keegan

41 Winthrop Street Hyde Park

Football 3, 4, Baseball 3, 4, Track 2 Where he gets his wisecracks nobody knows.

Janet H. Johnston

160 Summit Street Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, French Club 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Classical Club 4, Year Book Committee

We thought "Jan" preferred them tall, dark, and Irish, but lately she seems to be partial to B. U. boys.

Rita M. Kelly

13 Wood Avenue Mattapan

Debating Club 4, Speed Club 4, Red Cross Representative

With her popularity, roguishness and splendid personality, Rita is sure to be a star reporter.

Eleanora E. Jerewich

22 Washington Street Hyde Park

Drill Leader 4

This tall blonde has plenty of "it." She is an accomplished pianist and a very competent secretary. Her excellent leadership will surely bring success.

Frank E. Kiessling

103 Arlington Street Hyde Park

Frank is an air enthusiast and also likes to wear bright-colored clothes.

Henry E. Kilduft

34 Rosewood Street Hyde Park

Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Football Captain 4, Track 2, 3, A, A. Representative 3, 4, Debating 3, Spanish Club 4, Amateur Show 3, 4, Year Book Committee

That's Duff.

Jennie J. Kolenda

53 Summer Street Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, Sports Club 4

Jens is the modishly dressed Parkian whose Saturday night rendezvous is the Normandie. We wonder who's the donor of that Harvard ring?

Anthony J. Koshivos

10 Austin Street Hyde Park

Drum Corps 2, 3, 4, French Club 3, Orchestra 2, Classical Club

Tony is the dark-haried six footer with the Parisian accent that would make even a Frenchman sound like a beginner.

Agnes V. Kotwicka

49 Pleasant Street Dorchester

A. A. Representative 2, 3

One teacher dubbed our Agnes "Cupid." Did you dust off the grass for that football game yet?

Cecelia R. Kowalewski

38 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

French Club 4, Second Lieutenant 3

A "Lady of Fashion" is this petite miss. Why do all eyes follow her all the way down the corridor?

Helen Kunkel

55 Stanley Street Readville

Brown curly hair and dancing blue eyes describe our Helen. Her host of friends are proof of her popularity.

Nicholas Kutny

38B Navarre Street Roslindale

Amateur Show 4, Social Committee 2, Senior Show 4

"Nick" is a quiet dignified young man who doesn't say much, but, on occasions speaks volumes.

Theodore Kutny

108 Greenfield Road Mattapan

Drill Captain Track 2, 3, 4

The Speed Merchant, never fails to see the sunny side of life. It is this quality that will carry him far.

Edward T. Lalor

15 George Street Hyde Park

Captain 4, Track 2, Baseball 3, 4, Senior Show 4, Marshal 4

Ed is a busy boy as his record shows.

Nicholas V. Lavnikevich

1062 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Captain 4, Year Book Committee

How that little duck wished to hit the high seas. Don't get wet, Nick.

Henry F. Lavorgna

6 Adams Street Hyde Park

Social Committee 3

The question is being debated whether "Sawdust" shall be a contractor or a pattern-maker.

Veronica M. Linney

556 Washington Street Dorchester

Dramatic Club 4

Maybe she was new and quiet but what went on neath those long, dark lashes we'll never know.

Marjorie H. Lawler

576 River Street Mattapan

Year Book Committee, Social Committee 4, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Vice President Classical Club 4

Marjorie is a truly charming and popular young lady.

Arne F. Lofgren

57 Austin Street Hyde Park

Drum Corps 2, 3, Drum Major 4, Debating Club 4, Year Book Committee

Arne's excellent scholastic record is something to be proud of.

Mary Lazarowich

105 Radcliffe Road Hyde Park

Sports? Our popular, good-looking "Mae" certainly excels in them. Swimming, skating, tennis, and—dancing!

Robert E. Lutz

98 Warren Avenue Hyde Park

Year Book Committee, Dramatic Club, A. A. Representative 3, Senior Show, Amateur Show, Vice President 4, Classical Club

Does your heart beat rapidly with one glance from those eyes? If it doesn't "Bob" is losing his talent.

Eleanor Legendre

37 Ridge Road Mattapan

First Lieutenant 3

Eleanor is well liked by all her classmates because of her friendly manner and pleasant disposition.

Patrick J. Luciano

1457 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

"Lucky" may be seen in his Ford headed for Norwood or Cambridge.

Mabel K. Lemay

20 Dell Avenue Hyde Park

Drill Leader 4, Classical Club 4

Mabel has a dazzling personality and does she like "Beans"?

Edward J. Lynch

320 Huntington Ave. Hyde Park

Track 2, Baseball 2, 3, A. A. Representative 2

"Eddie," the mighty mite, is very fond of basketball and appears in the school gym with his teammates, the Redskins.

Mildred T. MacDonald

16 Maple Street Hyde Park

Speed Club, A. A. Representative 1, Red Cross League Treasurer 4

Our blue-eyed Millie believes in that old saying, "Better late than never." Millie is one of the best dancers in Hyde Park High.

Clifton T. MacLeod

193 Fairmount Ave. Hyde Park

Dramatics 4, Track 2, Senior Show 4

"Mac" is one of the stars on the Rangers basketball team.

Beverly MacPhee

114 West Street Hyde Park

Dramatics, Year Book, Amateur Show, Senior Show, Stunt Club

"Bev" is one of the peppiest girls in the school and her limitless supply of good humor has made her many admiring friends.

Ruth Madden

159 Orlando Street Mattapan

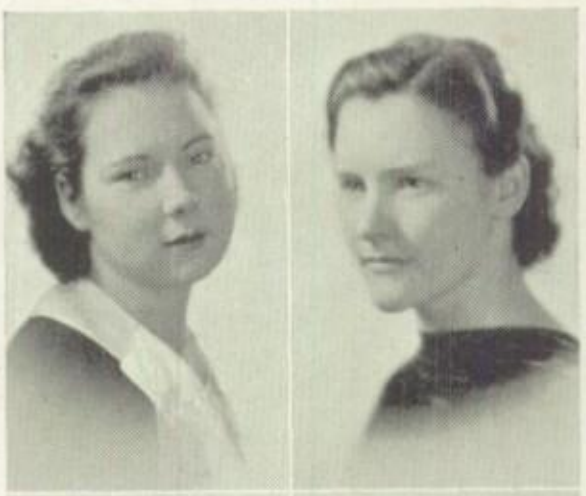
Speed Club 4

This charming young lady is an outstanding shorthand pupil and an unexcelled swimmer. We call her "The Modern Out-Door Girl."

Edna Majewska

37 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

Did you ever see a smile walking? Well, we have, none other than Edna who always is as jolly and cheerful as can be.



Lorraine Malmquist

95 West Milton Street Readville

Lorraine is a bowling enthusiast and if that helps towards her personality, which is extremely pleasant, everyone should try it.

Anna M. Manick

1422 Blue Hill Avenue Mattapan

Dramatic Club 1, Drill Leader 4, Amateur Show 2, 3, 4, Senior Show 3, 4, Stunt Club, Basketball 2

Anna's eyes begin to sparkle and her toes tingle whenever she hears snappy dance music for she's our future Eleanor Powell.

George L. Marcotte

63 Neponset Avenue Hyde Park

Year Book 4, Second Lieutenant 4, Football 4, Amateur Show 4, Marshal 3, 4, Senior Show 4

George is an active and popular boy and some say he's a student.

Charles F. Mattson

15 Wendover Street Dorchester

Year Book

The school's version of Fred Astaire is Charlie.

Ruth Maxwell

6 Warren Avenue Hyde Park

Debating 4, Glee Club, Sports Club, Speed Club

Ruth never talks much but there is a certain twinkle in her eye that shows she is quite capable of laughing at a good joke.

Loretta A. C. Mayer

226 Fairmount Avenue Hyde Park

Loretta is that quiet little brunette of 201. We hear that she goes for the French in a big way

Frank McAlpine

419 Huntington Ave. Hyde Park

Social Committee 2

Frank is quiet in school but a riot among his pals.

Martha McAvoy

255 Kennebec Street Mattapan

Mischievous is the word for Martha. Although she may be quiet during school hours, she turns the tables on us outside.

Ann McCarthy

27 Ronson Street Mattapan

Ann is the girl with the winning smile;
To help a friend she'd walk a mile.

Edna L. McCarthy

10 Jewett Street Roslindale

Dramatic Club, Classical Club

"Eddie" doesn't say much but thinks a lot. She is a typical dignified senior.

George F. McCarthy

151 Orlando Street Mattapan

George is quite a student and also a sharpshooter.

Loretta A. McDonald

38 Westminster Street Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, French Club 3, 4, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Classical Club 4, Year Book

"Mac" is 201's most modest colleen.

Louise C. McDonough

74 Harvard Street Hyde Park

Year Book, Dramatic Club 4, Amateur Show 4, Senior Show 4, Basketball 2

Louise is that snappy little dancer from 201. Her ready smile and good sportsmanship have endeared her to us all.

Margaret E. McDonough

8 Childs Street Hyde Park

Margaret is one of our accomplished skaters. This well-dressed maid is a figure of nonchalance and humor.

Anna McGilloway

20 Vose Avenue Hyde Park

Anna is the little unsophisticated miss of 110. She hints that drawing is her hobby. Maybe we can prophesy a future artist.

Doris J. McGivney

112 West Street Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, Social Committee, Amateur Show

Doris's cheery smile will go far to help her when she becomes an accomplished elocution teacher.

Mary M. McVinney

15 Summer Street Hyde Park

Social Committee 4, A. A. Representative 2, 4, Senior Show 4

Mary's recipe for popularity seems to be personality plus attractiveness, with a perpetual sense of humor.

George T. McGuire

20 Winthrop Street Hyde Park

Lieutenant 3, Captain 4, Amateur Show 4, Senior Show 4

George plays a swell game of basketball for the Aces.

Gaetano F. Megliola

40 Maynard Street Roslindale

Track 4, Baseball 4

If you see a cloud of dust, it is probably only Guy running the "300." He is also known as a pugilist.

Virginia McIntyre

1072 Hyde Park Ave Hyde Park

Speed Club, Year Book, Orchestra 2, 3, Senior Show, Second Lieutenant 4, Dramatic Club 4

"Gin" has much poise and assurance and plays a prominent part in all school activities.

Ernest P. Mendenhall

158 Colorado Street Mattapan

Football 3, Track 4, Dramatic Club 4, Lieutenant 4

Ernest in name but not always by nature except in the case of the Roslindale rose.

Pauline McKenna

Debating Club 4, Social Committee 3

Pauline is that vivacious member of 110 who is always bubbling over with laughter. She is one of Hyde Park's fair tennis enthusiasts.

Anthony Mercaitis

17 Margin Street Hyde Park

Football 4, Track 4, Year Book

Tony is a real athletic, outdoor fellow who enjoys hard work. Hunting and fishing are his hobbies.

Annie is 201's most efficient and obliging pal.

John H. Mills

27 Weston Street Hyde Park

French Club, Postscript, Senior Show

John does his homelessons and dances. During vacations he is addicted to farm life.

Helen R. Minot

715 Walk Hill Street Mattapan

A. A. Representative 3, 4

A real pal and all-around sport is Helen. Her athletic prowess and remarkable Adagio dances will long be remembered by the class of '37.

Donald A. Mitton

6 Nonquit Street Dorchester

Donald is a very popular lad with his smart line of chatter.

Frank Monaco

49 Business Street Hyde Park

Baseball 1, 2, 3, Track 1, 2

If silence is golden Frank is a millionaire.

Theresa Moody

60 Farwell Avenue Hyde Park

Basketball

Her good looks and dancing coupled with her charming personality makes her an outstanding and unforgettable classmate.

Harry F. Moore

86 Wood Avenue Mattapan

Harry is the only amateur piano player of room 22 who gets paid for it.

John A. Moore

1 Weeks Avenue Roslindale

A chemist in the making. Don't let him mix your drinks.

Blanche W. Moren

28 Walter Street Hyde Park

Captain 2, Lieutenant 3, 4, Speed Club

Blond and slim, Blanche has a knack for combining collegiate with sophistication. Her constant popularity is proof of her dancing ability.

Anna G. Murphey

56 Rexford Street Mattapan

Anna is the personality girl of 110. A little bit serious, a little bit humorous—you know the type.

Joseph W. Murphy

11 Loring Place Hyde Park

Baseball 4, Track 3

Murph's genial personality and placid manner have gained him many f r i e n d s. He can be depended on for merchandising homelessons.

Peter J. Murphy

48 Wood Avenue Mattapan

Social Committee 2, Track 2, 3, 4

One minute before the bell— Oh yes! Here's Pete, smiling, red-headed and friendly.

Marco Napolitano

1812 River Street Readville

Nap has a winning disposition and has become a very good friend of Mr. Stevens.

Virginia Murphy

12 Johnswood Road Roslindale

Sport Club, Year Book Committee, Captain 3, Social Committee 2, 3, Class Secretary 4, Drill Leader 4, A. A. Representative, Stunt Club 3, Speed Club 4, Lieutenant 2, 3

Just say she's petite and the record's complete.

Bernice Narpluca

15 Bismarck Street Mattapan

"Bea", the girl with loads of personality who always says it with a smile. And can she dance!

Anna M. Muzyka

186 Wood Avenue Mattapan

French Club 3, 4, Year Book, Captain 2, 3, 4, Drill Leader 4

What's that certain something Anna's got that we haven't? Perhaps she took a correspondence course in personality.

Marian E. Nason

141 Child Street Hyde Park

Year Book Committee

Marian is headed for bigger and better things in Journalism. She may become a second Jane Arden.

Arcoline Nannicelli

86 Sunnyside Street Hyde Park

French Club 4, Social Committee 4, Lieutenant 4, Senior Show 4, Drum Corps 2, 3, 4, Classical Club

When "Arky" goes to town thing's begin to pop.

Kathryn Nestor

293 Wood Avenue Hyde Park

Kathryn's aspirations for the future are not decided but our wishes for success go with her.

John J. Nannicelli

86 Sunnyside Street Hyde Park

Johnny is a sociable fellow and with that personality of his he makes quite a hit with the ladies.

George E. Nicholson

28 Chittick Road Hyde Park

Marshal 4

Nick is the handsome heartbeat of the Fairmount Theatre, running a close second to Carol.

Georgianna Nicholson

21 Ridge Road Mattapan

Glee Club, Red Cross, Captain

Right in our midst we have one of the most graceful dancers of the class. Those struggling Sophomores should look and learn.

Irene M. Noris

19 Fremont Place Mattapan

First Lieutenant 3, 4, Senior Show

Grace and rhythm personified. Irene's remarkable dancing aiblity is surpassed only by her accomplishments in Bookkeeping.

James A. O'Brien

16 Marie Street Mattapan

Lieutenant 3, 4, Year Book 4, Honor Roll 3

We have enjoyed knowing Obie for he is an earnest student and a true friend.

Marguerite M. O'Brien

Speed Club

What a complexion—peaches 'n cream! Marguerite is our efficient little switchboard operator. Reading is her favorite pastime.

R. Catherine O'Brien

679 Canterbury St. Roslindale

Stunt Club 2, 3

Catherine may seem quiet, but she certainly has a sense of humor that is hard to beat. She is well-liked and has a great many friends in school and out.

Richard D. Occhiolini

65A Fairmount Ave. Hyde Park

Year Book Committee

Dick is one of those fellows that is exactly what he appears to be, very good natured and brilliant. He will go far in his chosen profession.

Ann M. O'Connor

37 Williams Avenue Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, Room Captain 4, Classical Club 3, Second Lieutenant 2, 3, Basketball 2, Year Book Committee

Ann's large brown eyes do not seem to have lost any of their sparkle from poring over "math" problems.

John T. O'Connor

5 Fairmount Avenue Hyde Park

Social Committee 3, 4, Track 2, 3, Year Book Committee, Amateur Show 3, 4, Senior Show 4

"Oakie," Mr. Lahive's favorite pupil, is the best natured and the most comical pupil in the entire class.

Marguerite R. O'Connor

24 Almont Street Mattapan

Stunt Club 2, 3, 4

Although she's a petite Miss we expect great things of her. Incidentally Marguerite is quite a daring young acrobat.

Thomas A. O'Connor

151 Hollingsworth St. Mattapan

Baseball 3,4

Tommy is an excellent scholar, and when a mathematics problem comes up he's around to argue it out, and he usually can hold his own.

Charles Olsen

1125 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Red Cross Representative

Man about town, Charlie is never short of sparkling good humor and is always ready with the right word at the right time.

Emma Olsen

30 Mattakeeset Street Mattapan

Captain 2

This charming blue-eyed blonde from 107 has a great many friends. We'll all miss Emma and her sunny smile.

Henrietta Olszewski

102 Pierce Street Hyde Park

Classical Club 3, Lieutenant 2, 3

Hennie is so full of fun that she can easily be called, "Miss Hinchey's Terror." Is she a good sport? You bet!

Thomas E. O'Neil

1327 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Lieutenant 4, Red Cross 2, 3, Football 2

Tom is an ambitious chap who is always doing something that he is sure will bring him something in the end.

Louise M. Ormond

21 George Street Hyde Park

Senior Show, Debating Club 4, Dramatic Club 4, Speed Club 4, Year Book 4, Red Cross 3, French Club 3, Lieutenant 2, 3

Louise's ability to do her school work is surpassed only by her wit and humor.

Joseph M. Orsi

11 Pinedale Road Roslindale

Orchestra 2, 3, 4, First Lieutenant 4, Marshal 4, Amateur Show 4, Senior Show 4

Joe is a member of that great orchestra of Danny's, the Rhythm Kings.

Jean M. Outlaw

French Club 3

Here's the happy-go-lucky young lady with the ready smile. Jolly should be Jean's middle name.

Juanita Outlaw

Glee Club 2, French Club 4

Juanita can be heard throughout the room trying to imitate Lily Pons. Perhaps, after many years of practise, she may hit high "C."

James J. Paglucia

639 Canterbury St. Roslindale

Social Committee 3, Track 4, Baseball 2, Football 3, Captain 3, Adjutant 4, Red Cross 2, Amateur Show 4, Senior Show 4

Let's look at the record.

Michael Pankervich

53 Weybosset Street Mattapan

Social Committee 2, 3

If you see "Mike" taking any books home, draw the conclusion that he must be sick. He's a happy-go-lucky chap.

Julio J. Pasciuto

23 Blanchard Street Readville

"Squeak" hails from the wilds of Readville. He is clever when it comes to marksmanship with chalk.

Vincent L. Pasciuto

1340 River Street Hyde Park

Classical Club, French Club

After going three years to Art classes at the Art Museum, Vincent ought to be able to draw more than his breath.

Richard O. Pautzsch

222 Huntington Ave. Hyde Park

Senior Show 2, 3, 4, Amateur Show 3, 4

Richard is known all through the school for his ability to tickle the ivories. Mr. Illingworth will certainly miss him during choral practices.

Wilbur J. Pease

244 Reservation Road, Hyde Park

"Will" believes strongly in being practical. Last summer he took care of chickens and watched the turnips grow.

Fernand A. Perreault

978 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Lieutenant 3, 4, A. A. Representative 1, Marshal 4

The local boy makes good. Fred is an usher at the "Fairmount." (See Perreault for good seats.)

Lucille Petroski

617 Cummins Highway, Mattapan

Lucille is a quiet blue-eyed blonde who says little, thinks much, and is always agreeable.

Helen Pierce

992 River Street Hyde Park

Basketball 2, 3, 4, Red Cross 3, 4, Dramatic Club, Speed Club 4, Senior Show 4

Helen is one girl who is really as nice as she looks. And that's saying something!

Wanda M. Piolunek

140 Child Street Hyde Park

Wanda is quiet in school, but we've seen her the life of the party when homework wasn't on her mind.

Emma Pittman

9 Littledale Street Roslindale

Basketball 2, 3, 4, Senior Show 4, Dramatic Club 4

Emma is one of the few good listeners left in this day of "orators" and this has doubled her already great popularity.

Raymond E. Poole

8 Catherine Street Roslindale

Marshal 4

To watch "Ray" strut his stuff, you'd say he ought to change to ice skates and compete with Sonja Heine.

John D. Porter Jr.

38 Osceola Street Mattapan

Red Cross 4

As far as art goes, he is one of our very best. John will always get along with his winning grin.

Robert W. Porter

111 Walworth Street Roslindale

Year Book 4

Bob's interest is divided among school sports and socials.

William D. Potter

60 Highland Street Hyde Park

French Club, Year Book 4, Track 4, Senior Show 4, Amateur Show 4

Billy has given some good exhibitions of magic which is his hobby. He has been very consistent in getting all A's.

Norman F. Powell

77 Seymour Street Roslindale

Amateur Show 4, Senior Show 4

"Norm" can be heard swinging on his harmonica, and sometimes it might be worth listening to.

Priscilla L. Powell

42 Summit Street Hyde Park

Although "Pete" is very quiet in school, she doesn't keep her great silence outside.

Judith M. Prilgosky

122 Gallivan Blvd. Dorchester

Judith is a peppy brunette whose hobby is breaking hearts. Where did you get that beautiful complexion, Judith?

Patricia Quigley

35 Brown Avenue Roslindale

Social Committee 4, Year Book 4, Red Cross 3, 4

This devastating blue-eyed blonde is the sweetheart of 110. Petite and charming, Pat causes many of Hyde Park's masculine hearts to flutter.

Dorothea Quist

1831 Hyde Park Ave. Readville

Dot knows "Silence is Golden" and we appreciate the golden vein in her character

Mildred Reed

22 Water Street Hyde Park

We certainly appreciate Millie's rare visits to our classrooms. Her brilliant compositions are only slightly less appreciated.

Eugene F. Renzi

1748 River Street Hyde Park

Baseball 2, 3, 4, Red Cross 2, First Lieutenant 4

Good old "Renz" will go far with his dancing feet and sparkling personality.

Richard H. Rice

292 Fairmount Ave. Hyde Park

Lieutenant

Dick is quite a skiing and horseback riding enthusiast. He has been a good pal and student all through his years in high school.

Doris M. Rich

Classical Club 3, Dramatic 4, Second Lieutanant 4

Dot is our "Dresden" girl. Who can forget that sweet smile that caused her to be crowned "Miss Sophomore"?

Dorothy A. Richards

42 Mildred Avenue Mattapan

Social Committee 4, Year Book 4, Speed Club 4, First Lieutenant 4

Dot has Shirley Temple all beat for curls. She sure has "what it takes" and as for clothes she can't be beat.

George Richenburg

475 Poplar Street Roslindale

Social Committee, First Lieutenant 3, Captain 4

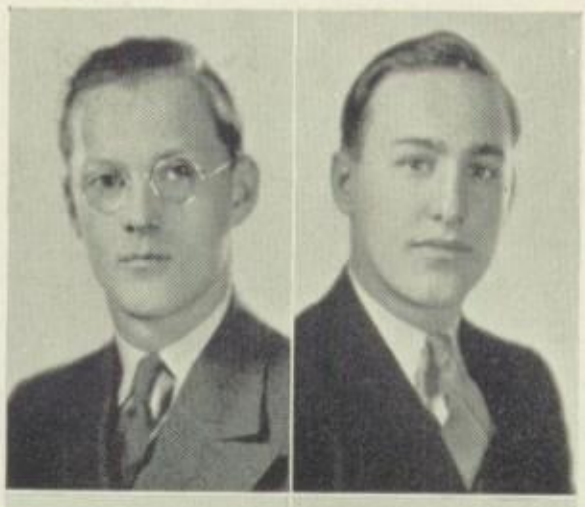
His pleasant personality has won him many friends among pupils and teachers alike.

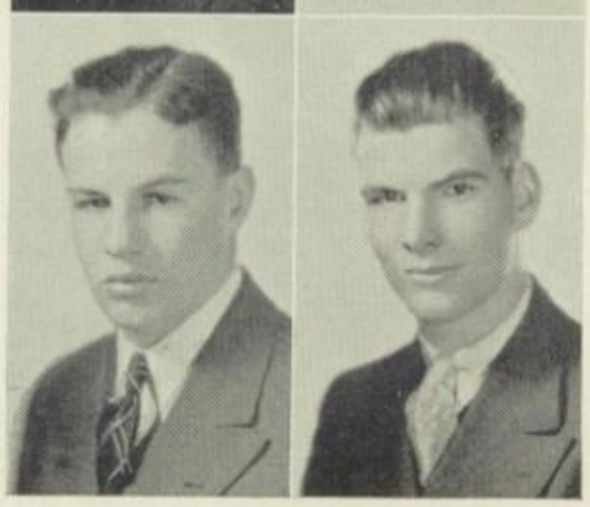
John A. Robertson

111 Babson Street Mattapan

Track 2, 3

Here is a quiet chap who goes about his business like a veteran and we feel sure that he will some day be rewarded for his efforts.





Adolph A. Rocheleau

14 Rector Road Mattapan

Lieutenant 3, 4

"Rush" will probably be found in the uniform of a naval or marine officer or captain of a rowboat.

Mary F. Rooney

812 River Street Mattapan

Captain 3

Personality plus dancing feet make Mary the sweetheart of the Black and Blue. A good athlete, an all-around sport, and a swell kid.

Nicholas P. Rosati

1518 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

"Nick" is named the "Mad Genius" because of his ability to fix and invent anything.

Agnes Roycroft

87 Hollingsworth St. Mattapan

Social Committee 2, Secretary 3, Drill Leader 4, Debating Club 4, Second Lieutenant 2, Year Book Committee

Ask anyone who one of our leaders in fashion and personality is, and you'll be answered, "Agnes."

Bartlett H. Ryan

42 Beaver Street Hyde Park

Track 3, 4, Baseball 3

A good book and a friendly English teacher to argue with is Bartlett's recipe for his everlasting smile.

Margaret L. Ryan

371 Huntington Ave. Hyde Park

Social Committee 3, Senior Show

Margie's undeniable charm lies in her unassuming manner.

Marie Ryan

15 Groveland Street Mattapan

Basketball 2 3,

Marie certainly burns up the cinders when she gets going. She has a very likable manner and her winning smile captivates us all.

Ruth B. Ryan

7 Liveridge Way Mattapan

We often wonder if Ruth really is as quiet out of school as she is in school.

G. Esther Sahl

59 Summer Street Hyde Park

First Lieutenant 2, Social Committee 2, Year Book

Our Esther is a lovable little Miss who has caused many a heart to flutter. She's quite some artist too.

William B. Sammartino

24 Summit Street Roslindale

Class Officer 2

"Sammy" has high ideals, mainly to become a pugilist. Notice the golden gloves pin in his coat lapel.

Patricia Savage

7 Babson Street Mattapan

Not even the disturbance of an appendectomy is sufficient to subdue Pat's enthusiasm for athletics.

William V. Sawtelle

14 Rosa Street Hyde Park

Red Cross 2, 3, 4

In the summertime Bill may be seen steamboating to Nantasket. He can be distinguished by his "Wa Ho."

John L. Schiano

765 Rear South St. Roslindale

John's ambition is to succeed. We wonder if he knows that the first million is the hardest.

Eleanor F. Scott

62 West Street Hyde Park

Sports Club 4, Drill Leader

Eleanor's good humor and friendly ways make her "the tops." The popular dance hall, "The Raymor" is her favorite rendezvous.

Ruth E. Seaburg

23 Rockingham Road Mattapan

Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Basketball 2, 3, Classical Club 3, 4, French Club 3, Captain of Girls Track Team

Ruth is an excellent musician, a model student, and an outstanding member of the Girls' Track Team.

Frederick J. Seely

1450 Blue Hill Ave. Mattapan

Year Book, Editor-in-chief, A. A. Representative 3, 4, Football 3, 4, Track 3, 4, Baseball 3, 4, Drum Corps 3, 4, Senior Show

Fred has become very popular in his two years here, and has established quite a record both socially and athletically.

Marion Shibley

163 Beaver Street Hyde Park

"Minty's" fondness for winter sports would make the North Pole an ideal vacation spot for her.

Wilhelmina Senger

28 Greenwood Avenue Hyde Park

Red Cross Representative 3, 4

Billie is quite interested in radio and plans to make herself an operator.

Peter T. Shibley Jr.

163 Beaver Street Hyde Park

Pete didn't say a word until he was two years old. You should hear him now.

Irene Shempa

1436 River Street Hyde Park

Basketball 2

On the cold winter nights Renee and her pals haunt the ice, Smith's field being the favorite spot.

Henry Shuman

57 Gordon Avenue Hyde Park

Classical Club 4, Dramatic Club 4, Baseball 3, 4, Track 3, 4, Football 3, 4, Senior Show 4, French Club 3, 4

Heimie is one of the Trojans' star basketball players. He's going into the butcher business when he graduates.

Barbara Sherlock

101 Warren Avenue Hyde Park

A. A. Representative 4

Barbara is fond of sailboats. Let's hope she has smooth sailing to success.

Mitchell Sikora

1417 River Street Hyde Park

Football 2, 3, 4, Social Committee 3, 4, Baseball 4

"Si" is the sentimental gentleman from Sunnyside.

Josephine T. Shibley

46 Austin Street Hyde Park

Orchestra 2, 3, French Club 3, Dramatic Club 4, Glee Club 2, 4, Drill Leader. First Lieutenant 4

Gentlemen prefer blondes and "Jo" is certainly one to be preferred.

William A. Simmons

176 Ruskin Road Mattapan

Bill is a busy boy both in school and outside.

Helen Sirena

16 Mason Street Hyde Park

Helen is our quiet little girl with big ambitions. She's interested in tennis and can wield a mean racquet.

Frances D. Solitro

823 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Frances is small, quiet and dignified. In school we hardly know she's here.

Mary I. Slyva

35 Winslow Street Hyde Park

First Lieutenant, French Club 4

Mary's one dimple just seems to touch that certain spot. There may be a day when she finds its mate.

Eleanor F. Spadano

25 Winthrop Street Hyde Park

Red Cross 4

El is a very sedate sort of person possessing a most unassuming nature, that is, during school hours.

Isabel D. Smart

706 Metropolitan Ave., Hyde Park

Classical Club 3, 4, Drill Leader 4, French Club 3, Room Captain 2, 3, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Basketball 2

Smart by name and smart by brain. Petite and neat, our Isabel.

Edna Spurr

17 Pond Street Hyde Park

Basketball 3

Edna's ability to dance makes her first choice for a partner at dances.

Mildred L. Smith

127 Pleasantview St. Roslindale

Basketball 2, 3, 4, A, A, Representative 3

Millie is an accommodating and well-liked person. The office will certainly be without a competent girl when she leaves.

Joseph P. Steckelun

23 Ranson Road Mattapan

Football 3, 4, Baseball 2, 3, 4, Track 2, 3 Captain 4

Joe has been with us for four years and he is one of the most amiable fellows we've ever seen.

Phyllis G. Smith

210 Fairmount Ave. Hyde Park

Dramatic Club 4, Basketball 2, 3, Classical Club 3, 4, French Club 3, First Lieutenant 2

Phyl is gifted with a pleasing personality and is just the kind of a student teachers pray for.

Audrey D. Stevens

420 Huntington Ave. Hyde Park

Speed Club 4

Petite? Oui! Pretty? To be sure! Studious? Well yes!

Florence L. Sullivan

8 Almont Street Hyde Park

Classical Club 3, 4

Florence is one of the quiet girls of 203—until she gets going! Then her Irish eyes sparkle delightfully.

Thelma G. Taylor

17 Winslow Street Hyde Park

Year Book Committee

We have all been wondering what Thelma thinks Dedham has that Hyde Park hasn't.

Margaret M. Sullivan

91 East Glenwood Ave. Hyde Park

Classical Club 3, French Club 4, Year Book Committee 4, Athletic Representative 3

Peggy is a swell sport and she sure can spell, for in 1935 she was the champion speller of our school.

Evelyn Thomas

85 River Street Hyde Park

Evelyn's unique drawl and 1937 Pontiac are two of the features figured in her individuality.

Arnold Swanson

76 Gustine Street Dorchester

Year Book Committee, Class Treasurer 4, Classical Club, Football 4, First Lieutenant, French Club 3, 4

During his two years in Hyde Park Arnie has proved himself to be a satisfactory person both with the ladies and as an athlete.

Everett D. Thompson

196 Austin Street Hyde Park

Red Cross Representative 4, Baseball Manager 3, 4, Track 2, 3, 4, French Club 3, Senior Show 4

Everett is a great manager and hopes to handle the Red Sox soon.

Alexander A. Tarallo

13 A Street Hyde Park

Sandy has trouble eating his lunch and trying to keep an eye on each door at the ten minute period.

Margaret Thompson

259 Kennebec Street Mattapan

A true friend and a real pal. Margaret is better known as "Scotty."

Viola J. Tarallo

221 Reservation Road Hyde Park

Viola is of the petite dark type and may always be found gliding gracefully over some dance floor in the vicinity of Sunnyside.

William Thompson

914 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Track 3, 4

Who is this gay, gaunt, light-haired chap? He is known as "Professor" in the history class.

Douglas B. Timmons

72 Water Street Hyde Park

Social Committee 2, Track 3

"Doug" is the little fellow of 115, who may be seen behind a long-handled broom in the vicinity of 118 at noontime.

Charlotte A. Toland

33 Burmak Street Mattapan

Year Book, Dramatic Club, French Club 4

Charlotte has high hopes of some day becoming a teacher. We wonder whom she is going to teach—and why?

Margaret L. Tolland

5 Rose Street Hyde Park

Margaret is one of those girls who accomplishes much, but says little. Her smile is worth more than words.

Francis X. Toomey

805 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Social Committee 3, Track 3, 4, Lieutenant 4, Prize Drummer 3

"Fran" is one of the few quiet students of 115. His pleasing personality has won him many friends.

Arthur Topham

98 Westminster Street, Hyde Park

Arthur is an outstanding bookkeeper who may some day be a C. P. A. After school he fills gasoline tanks.

William Trask

99 Austin Street Hyde Park

Bashful Bill is quite a pianist. His ability to play seems to have appealed to a certain young damsel.

Priscilla C. Tripp

80 Blake Street Mattapan

Track 3, Basketball 2, 3, Classical Club 3, French Club 3, 4

All her boy friends have indeed recognized her culinary ability.

Joseph Uzdavinis

33 Fulton Street Hyde Park

Drum Corps 2, 3, 4, Track 3, 4, Senior Show 4

Joe's ability to do some things handicaps him in others. He has a swell line of talk but he ought to say more.

Jeanette L. Vincent

96 Folson Street Hyde Park

Captain 3, Classical 4

A charming personality and jovial nature describe the fair co-ed. Incidentally, she is the smiling blonde who daily greets you at the lunch counter.

Sylvia V. Vittarini

45 Stoughton Avenue Readville

Wherever a little chuckle is heard, you'll find "Vitti." And her twinkling toes never fail her in a response to music.

Arvid S. Wahlstrom

85 Itasca Street Mattapan

Social Committee 3, Drum Corps 3, Track 3, 4, Football 3, 4, Baseball 4

Flash Wahlstrom! The answer to a maiden's prayer. We expect to see Arvie in Tokio in 1940.

John F. Walantis Jr.

630 Metropolitan Ave. Hyde Park

Captain 4, Track 2, 3, 4

Slim has had a good deal of track practice under Skip Sherlock and, who knows, he may some day be a second Jesse Owens. He captained the very successful 1937 team.

Pauline Waller

18 Page Street Hyde Park

Basketball

"Take another letter please." Pauline's only aim is to be an accomplished and efficient secretary.

Edith A. Wallin

60 Summer Street Hyde Park

Edie is one of our quieter seniors but her friendly disposition and ever-ready "hi" has made her a pal to all.

Florence Walsh

940 Hyde Park Ave. Hyde Park

Basketball 2, 3, Speed Club 4, Sports Club 4, Social Committee 4, Captain 2, 3

A blonde most certainly to be preferred by all who have known her.

Flora A. Ward

132 Wood Avenue Hyde Park

Flora is a vivacious brown-eyed brunette with many friends. This little girl has plenty of personality.

William S. Ward

132 Wood Avenue Hyde Park

He may have come from Canada two years ago, but believe me, he's no farmer. Canada's loss is our gain.

Rose Waterman

50 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

Orchestra 2, 3, 4

Rose carries two things—violin and life savers. The first for art and the second for art's sake.

Robert E. West Jr.

10 Floral Place Hyde Park

Baseball 4

Is my face red! That's "Westy" when a girl speaks to him. A great pal among many friends.

Francis W. Whalen

34 Norton Street Hyde Park

Red Cross, Baseball 2, 3, 4, Track 2, 3, Football 4, Senior Show, Classical Club, Lieutenant

"Clip" is the main-spring of the class.

Barbara White

7 Nelson Street Readville

French Club 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4, Red Cross Club 4

Barbara has a sunny smile and a pleasant disposition and is quite clever in writing short poems about her classmates.

John J. Williams

67 Sunnyside Street Hyde Park

Class President 2, 4, French Club 4, Year Book, Football 3, 4, Track 3, 4, Senior Show 4, Amateur Show 4, Classical Club 3, 4

Hail to the chief!

Robert D. Wilson

37 Itasca Street Mattapan

Track 4, Football 4

In a year's time we will, no doubt, be tuning our radio in to hear Wilson, the Basso Profundo.

Margaret Wingfield

35 Osceola Street Mattapan

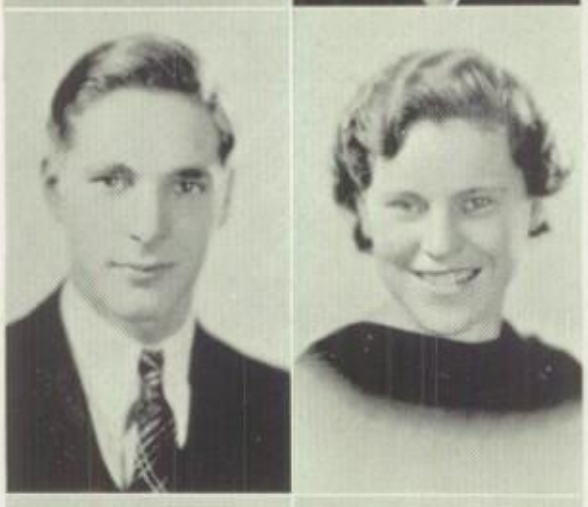
Year Book 4, Sports Club 4, Senior Show 3, 4, Captain 4

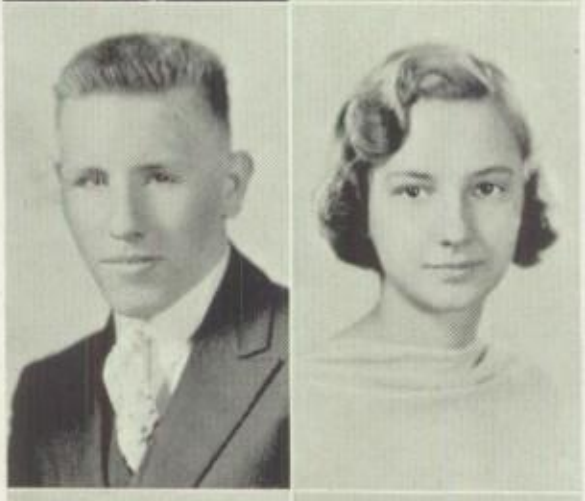
Peggy, although she won't admit it, is, we think, out for a musical career.

Lucy H. Woleyko

4 Neponset Avenue Hyde Park

Blue eyes and golden hair, that's our Lucy. Although Lucy is inclined to be quiet her manner is always sincere.





Bernard W. Wolson

174 Savannah Avenue Mattapan

Track 4, Football 2

"Bruno" has a physique that is the envy of the boys of Room 22.

Carol A. Wright

21 Webster Street Hyde Park

Take some red hair, sparkling blue eyes, lots of fun, and a couple of gallons of pep, mix together and you get Carol.

Dorothy Wysocki

10 Adams Avenue Hyde Park

Speed Club, Drill Leader 4, Red Cross 2, 3, 4, Year Book, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Lieutenant 2

"Still water flows deep." Dorothy has the dignity and assurance that go with ability.

Benedict J. Zaino

191 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

Orchestra 2, 3, 4

"Benny" has ambitions of some day being a swing king with his sax.

Mary Zak

61 Dana Avenue Hyde Park

Basketball 3, Stunts Club 3

Mary's intricate dance steps have furnished great pleasure to the watchers in the gym and kept her in demand for dances.

John Zampi

47 Florence Street Roslindale

John is a quiet lad who seems to be missing when he is around. He is a good friend to every one, including his pal, Schiano.

William A. Zaniboni

164 Washington Street Hyde Park

Orchestra 2, 3

William has made many friends by his quiet smiling manners.

Helen M. Zarosinski

19 Whitney Park Mattapan

Drill Leader 3, Lieutenant 3, 4

"Last but not least." Helen's tendency to lead was great, but just couldn't keep us together during those 10-minute periods.

A CALL TO LIFE

At last Life's portals open wide,
Our eyes behold an open way,
We linger for a moment—then
Go gladly forth on this—our day.

Deep in our hearts youth's glowing fire
Will bear us on to a glorious height,
Until the goal to which we aspire
At last, shall come within our sight.

But, if Life's hardships overcome us,
If we should falter on the road,
May we find some understanding
To help us bear our heavy load.

With trust in Him who cares for all,
With faces looking toward the sun,
We answer joyfully the call,
And pray our battle may be won.

Marguerite Giles.

CLASS WILL

Doubtless the end is in view, with this and our many benefactors in mind we take our pen and set forth our last will and testament.

To Mr. Haley we leave our sincere thanks for his expert guidance through three years of high school.

To Mr. Buckley we leave a bottle of dandruff remover to protect his moustache.

To Mr. Aykroyd we leave a Junior class that may appreciate having their prom at the Towers.

To Miss Dowd we leave the reputation of still being the most popular teacher.

To Major Kelley, we leave a few dozen bottles of cleansing fluid for the unkempt uniforms.

To Mr. Donoghue we leave six competent bookkeepers to relieve him of the burden of the Seniors' accounts.

To Mr. D'Amato we leave a cash register that will play "Mia Bella Rosa."

To Mr. Lahive we leave a large framed map of beloved Cape Cod.

To Mr. Grady we leave two linotype machines. They will save the students the difficulty of handling the type.

To Mr. Kenney we leave a couple of shots of Mickey Mouse and Simone Simon to show in his movie projector.

To Mr. Murphy we leave a special license that will permit him to offer expert advice to his Alma Mater's athletic coaches.

To Mr. Stevens we leave a suitcase with a burglar alarm attached.

To Miss Doyle we leave a trot-detector to aid her in her annual clean-up campaign.

To Pat Burke we leave a broom that will clean the corridors with one sweep.

To the Juniors we leave two very competent assistants, Mr. Aykroyd and Mr. Buckley to assist them in their class activities.

Johnny Cooper leaves a well used pair of football pants and baseball shoes.

Mary Zac and Joe Uzdavinus leave their professional ballroom dancing ability.

Irene Noris leaves a come hither look that can't be imitated.

Bob Carol leaves in his important little way.

Agnes Roycroft leaves still admiring last year's will.

Theresa Moody leaves a patented dance step.

Fred Seeley leaves a pet flea that bothered him all year.

Joe Assaf leaves behind a melodious strain from his Stradivarius.

Claire Armstrong leaves much to the regrets of the Boston Elevated.

Frank Gabriel is "Gone with the Wind."

Joe Ferris leaves his unique style of dressing to some worthy Junior.

Winnie Aykroyd leaves the ltite of the class blusher.

Arvid Wahlstrom leaves several copies of the latest fashion magazines.

Gene Renzi leaves a book of instructions on how to dance.

Ida Brugnetti and Anna Manick leave the floors groaning from some unhappy landings.

Larry Downing leaves for a Lucky Strike.

Billy Potter leaves an excellent scholastic record.

Virginia Murphy leaves an enchanting smile.

Bud Cronin leaves a few broken hurdles for Skip to mend.

George Richenburg leaves some broken dishes.

Joe Barron leaves a few samples of H. B. cough drops.

"Willie" Barrett, John Cheever and "Arkie" Nannicelli leave still chasing each other.

Kathleen Curley leaves several ardent admirers.

"Larry" Brindely leaves his hair grow now that he's out of school.

Walter Cochrane leaves a splendid record for attendance.

Johnny Corrigan gladly leaves the nickname "Bottles" to anyone who wants it.

Adelaide Innes leaves behind her dignified manner.

Isabel Smart leaves an unsurpassable record.

Betty Cass leaves only a memory of her beautiful voice.

"Guy" Megliola leaves most of his hair.

Muggsie McGuire leaves a couple of worn out harmonicas.

Ruth Farnham leaves her artistic coiffures.

Evelyn Grant leaves that song "Gee But You're Swell" ringing in a young man's ear.

Richard Pautszch leaves the piano keys yelling for mercy.

Ernie Mendenhall bequeaths his harmonica to his Alma Mater.

Cecilia Kowaleski leaves a few ideas to the up and coming as to how to dress modishly.

Arnie Swanson leaves holding the bag of money.

Francis Bagge leaves his own dance routine for a future toe dancer.

Deborah Clifford leaves a convincing denial that she is a bleached-blonde.

Frank Keissling leaves a pair of air conditioned spats.

Bob Lutz reluctantly leaves a certain lonely Junior.

"Johnnie" Habenicht doesn't leave her formula for popularity.

Jack Williams leave his many thanks to his classmates for their cooperation.

Evelyn Doyle leaves a pair of well worn clubs.

Emma Olson leaves—Has anybody here seen Emma?

Doris Rich leaves an endorsement for Woodbury's—for that school-girl complexion.

"Pat" Luciano leaves his newspaper route for higher things.

Rita Kelley leaves a blush that only an Irish colleen can make effective.

Jake Deleconio leaves a well-worn towel to wipe off next year's football.

Bill DeMerritt, Dave Findlay, Bob Edwards, Cliff MacLeod leave an impressive record of basketball victories.

Anne McCarthy leaves a charming sister to take her place as the bright spot in next year's classes.

Eleanor Daly leaves proof that good things come in small packages.

George Bacher leaves a wistful desire for taller girls.

Margie Lawler leaves her sunny disposition.

Bob Carr is still leaving for Roslindale.

Millie Carpenter leaves a treasure chest of cherished mementoes.

Tom O'Neil leaves his soap box for another famed orator.

Arne Lofgren leaves fame behind and seeks new honors.

Beverly MacPhee, Virginia McIntyre, Louise McDonough leave three pairs of tattered dancing slippers.

Charlotte Toland leaves a stream of chatter behind her.

Johnny Walantis leaves a splendid record as captain of a crack track team.

Wilfred Jean leaves a bulging brief case.

Oakie and Duff leave us still wondering why we laughed at their jokes.

Jerry Hogan leaves a well-thumbed Cicero and the remains of a box of aspirin tablets.

Signed, sealed, and delivered this 14th day of May, in the year of Our Lord, 1937, by the loyal members of this class.

CLASS PROPHECY

TWENTY YEARS AFTER
(A dialogue of interest to the Class of 1937)

Scene: A radio station

Time: May 14, 1935

Announcer—Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. This broadcast in coming to you from station WECU with studios in the Copley-Statler Hotel in Hyde Park, Mass.

This broadcast is sponsored by the Ferris Suspender Company. "Ferris Suspender never let you down." . . . This evening we are going to interview that famous American humorist, Hiram Hewett, who will comment on the Class of 1937 of the Hyde Park High School which is holding its twentieth reunion in the ballroom of the Copley-Statler tonight. Both Mister Hewett and I are members of that class.

Ladies and gentlemen, Hiram Hewett!

(Enter Hewett from right wing)

Hiram—Thank'ee, Spencer! Howdy, folks. Was jest down stairs meetin' up with some folks I hain't seed for quite a time. Sure is great to see some old friends, and there certainly are plenty down there Guess about everybody from the old class is there. All of them are a-dancin' and a'talkin' or doin' somethin'. The first person I laid eyes on was Johnny Williams; he's Commodore of a fleet of swan-boats in the Public Garden; then I seed Virginia Murphy; she jest won a National Croquet Tournament. Yes, sir! There were quite a few famous people down there: Ernest Mendenhall, the explorers; Doris Rich and "Bob" Lutz from Hollywood; Adelaide Innes, the Metropolitan Opree Star and George Curley who was jest made Ambassador to France.

Announcer—That's right, Hiram! There are quite a few public figures from that class. "Jerry" Hogan and James O'Brien are both running for Governor, and Mary Gaffney was just elected the first woman mayor of Hyde Park.

Hiram—By the way, "Fred" Perrault, he's manager of the Opree House now, told me to remind all the folks about the new show that's openin' at the Opree House next week. It's called the "Crunchy Nuts Amateur Show" and shore is a humdinger. Professor Potter will pull rabbits outa' hats and the Four Quacks, Fulton, Cooper, Marcotte, and Garland will entertain with some real hill-billy music. A special added attraction will be the appearance of that well-known comedy team, Kilduff and O'Connor. These boys once appeared before the uncrowned heads of Europe and once was enough.

Announcer—Speaking of the theatre, have you ever come across any of Mr. Aykroyd's prodigies?

Hiram—Wall, I know that some of them are in the "Revue of 1957" that Nicholas Lavnikevitch is directing, Georgiana Nicholson has the leading role and Joseph Uzdavinis is co-starring. Some others in the show are "Betty" Cass and "Bob" Edwards who will sing a song popular some years back, "The Organ-Grinder's Swing!" The sensational tap dancers, Anna Manick and Louise McDonough, and the famous comedy team of Megliola and Cochrane will also be there. But you know more of the local goings on that I do, Spencer. You tell the folks about some of the old crowd you've seen.

Announcer—Certainly, and I'm sure you'd be interested to hear about the people I see every day. Every morning I eat at Louis Carbone's lunch cart, ride to the studio on the Johnston bus line, where I frequently meet Arne Lofgren, the State Street banker, Edna McCarthy, who owns a pet shop on Boylston Street, Florence Walsh, who is District Attorney Swanson's secretary, Margaret Barton and "Dot" Richards who write for the Boston Times of which Joseph Murphy is editor-in-chief, and Mina Belyea, who is a copy-reader for the Linney Book Company. Of course, you know that J. Russell Cook is manager of the Copley-Statler, and John Mills is hotel-detective. He recently apprehended "Larry" Brindley taking time but, for lack of circumstantial evidence, Judge Olsen dismissed the case like the good sport that he is.

Hiram—Speaking of sports, there were quite a few sportsmen in that class. Pagliuci, Sam Arno, Pete Gaglio, and Ted Kutny were on the Olympic team which Warren Drury coached a few years ago. For that matter, there are several who, are coaching now; John Walantis is coaching the Sing Sing cross country team and Dave Findlay is swimming instructor at Alcatraz University. Jean Bolan is coach of the women's basketball team which won the National Championship last season and Mildred Carpenter is swimming tutor at the "Y" where Renzi is showing the boys how to play ping-pong. And I forgot to mention that "Gus" Simmons is America's champion flag-pole sitter, and would have broken his own record if the pole hadn't broken.

Announcer—Just one other word about sports while we're on that subject, Hiram. I went down to Fenway Park this afternoon and I saw Corrigan's charges trim the Wasps. "Joe" Stecklun was on the mound The defensive playing of Cronin and McMahon, the double play artists, and the timely hitting of "Clip" Whalen and "Sven" Wahlstrom won the day for the Sox. Incidentally, I've heard that you've made guest appearances at the local clubs rather often?

Hiram—That's right, Spence! I was up to the Hyde Park Women's Club annual banquet at which President Gladys Habenicht presided. There was quite a gathering of business women there. Claire Andrews and Rose Antosca who have just opened the Roslindale Dating Bureau, Lillian Baliski and Marie Arsenault, proprietors of the Mattapan Roller Skating Rink, and Ruth Farnham, owner of the Chic Dresse Shoppe at which Edith Curtis and Margorie Lawlor are modeling clothes. Deborah Clifford and Marguerite Giles are joint owners of a chain of restaurants called "Ye Olde Hotte Dogge Stande." Margaret Sullivan conducts the Boston Herald Spelling Bee, and Mary Zak is employed in the Heatley Beauty Parlors. The guests of honor were: Agnes Roycroft, our new Secretary of Labor; Patricia Quigley, who reviewed her latest novel, "Nonchalance, the Key to Success;" Virginia McIntyre whose story "Breezy Departure" has won the Pulitzer Prize for literature and Ann O'Connor, famous mathematician, who studied under Einstein. Thelma Taylor, Dedham Real Estate Agent, spoke on "The Trailer Versus the Home."

Announcer, looking at his watch—I'm sorry to interrupt you Hiram, but I'd like to read a few of the telegrams I received before the program.

Hiram—Go right ahead, Spence!

Announcer—Here's one from Saskatchewan, Canada:

"DEAR SPENCER—TRAPPING GREAT THIS SEASON STOP
WISH WE WERE AT REUNION STOP WILL BE LISTENING
TO YOUR BROADCAST STOP"
WILLARD BARNETT ALGIRDAS BURDULIS JOHN CHEEVER

Here's another from the Sahara Naval Base:

"FIRST CLASS SEAMAN HESSE JOINS ME IN SENDING CONGRATULATIONS STOP REGARDS TO ALL STOP"
LIEUTENANT COMMANDER GEORGE RICHENBURG
COMMANDING SAHARA NAVAL BASE

From Madison Square Garden, "Art" Hvoslef, sports announcer, wires:

"COVERING LIGHT FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP
BOUT BETWEEN 'TIGER' CARROLL AND 'WILDCAT' ASSAF
STOP 'BUD' THOMPSON ACTING AS REFEREE STOP RE-MEMBER US TO ALL STOP"
"ART" HVOSLEF

Here's the last one from the S. S. Arcadia off the coast of Spain. It says:
"ENJOYING OUR CRUISE STOP MAY THE REUNION BE A SUCCESS STOP"

MARY SYLVA ANNA MUZYKA CHARLOTTE CLIGGETT

Hiram—Say Spence, with your kind permission I'd like to read a few verses to the folks which I made up specially for this occasion.

Announcer—Go ahead, Hiram. I'm sure we'd be all very glad to hear them.

Hiram—Well, here be the first one.

Haste thee, Lynch, and bring with thee,
Sweet Cecilia Kowaleski
Moody and Smith and O'Kelley
Cook and Wright and Chludinski
To this reunion here tonight
To bring their comrades sweet delight.

Here's another I made up on the ball-room floor:
Here's Robert West with his banjo,
And Carr with his saxophone;
And Downing with his xylophone.

Pautzsch plays the piano,
Rose Waterman fiddles in tune;
Pierce performs on the piccolo,
And Griffin jumps over the moon.

Announcer—Very good, Hiram. Have you any more of your verses?

Hiram—Why yes, Spence, I have one more here I'd like to read.

Shuman thought he'd take a Tripp
Through our fair metropolis
And whom he saw and what he did
Are recorded in this verse.

First in a hospital Shuman we find
Where Florence Sullivan is a nurse fair and kind
And Bagge and Arthur, orderlies strong.
Pushing the patients' lunch carts along.

Then to the art museum he goes
To view the paintings of artists he knows
The paintings of Pasciuto and Sahl
Whose delicate lines give pleasure to all.

At noontime at Grant's Hotel he eats
Where Maguire and Lalor, the G-Men, he meets
Conversing with DeMerritt and Jank,
Directors of the Penny Savings Bank.

After dinner he takes a stroll
On the new Derzanski Boulevard,
And, lo! and behold, whom should he meet
But officer Koshivos, patrolling his beat.

With Koshivos pointing out the sights
The afternoon flew quickly by,
And when the day had turned to night
He returned home for a little shut-eye.

Announcer—That certainly is a masterpiece, Hiram, but I see that we have only one minute left, and we'll have to close the interview.

Hiram—Well, thankee Spence, for the privilege of speaking for the class, and thanks to all the folks that were listening. Goodnight, everybody!

Announcer—You have just been listening to an interview with the famous Hiram Hewett about the fame and fortunes of his and my class . . . the Class of 1937 of Hyde Park High School.

This is Spencer Ross bidding you all good night in behalf of the Class of 1937, and of the Ferris Suspender Company. We hope you'll all be listening for the twenty-first reunion which will be broadcast one year from tonight. This broadcast has come to you from Station WECU with studios in the Coply-Statler Hotel in Hyde Park, Mass.

CLASS SONG

FAREWELL TO HYDE PARK

Music from "My Old Kentucky Home"

O! the time has come when we all must say good bye to the school which has been so dear.
The years have passed leaving memories of the days when we toiled with happy classmates, here.
Our friends recall all the times we had of old, all merry, all happy and gay.
By and by we'll dream of this parting here today; then to you, old Hyde Park High, we fondly say—

Chorus

Sing, O, Sing, my comrades!
Oh, sing again today!
Let us sing one song for the years in Hyde Park High,
For the happy days we spent at work and play.

And may the years be bright with good fortune and good cheer
To all those assembled here today!
May your hearts be blest with a host of friendships true
To make lighter all your burdens on the way.
Today "goes by like a shadow o'er the heart," with sorrow where all was delight
A few more hours and we'll be gone for aye, then to you, old Hyde Park High, we fondly say—

Chorus

Sing, O, Sing, my comrades!
Oh, sing again today!
Let us sing one song for the years in Hyde Park High,
For the happy days we spent at work and play.

CLASS POEM

Deep in the earth the roots were hid;
Nurtured by endless seasons of rain and sun.
Up through the sod the delicate tendrils thrust
And round about the giant oak they clung.
Round and round, and ever upward
Higher still they climbed.
Far above, the sun looked down, and smiling, beamed
Upon the efforts of these hardy plants.
Suddenly, the rays of the sun were obscured
By angry, scowling clouds.
Torrents of rain, driven by gusty winds,
Lashed the tender, climbing creepers.
Torn by the wind, and buffeted by rain
Back to earth they dropped, the weak to remain;
But, the indomitable climb again.
Strengthened by adversity to struggle on anew,
And finally the upward heights attain.

Corinne Holden, 201

Honorable mention goes to Helen Zaroxinski, 102 and Margaret Giles, 107.

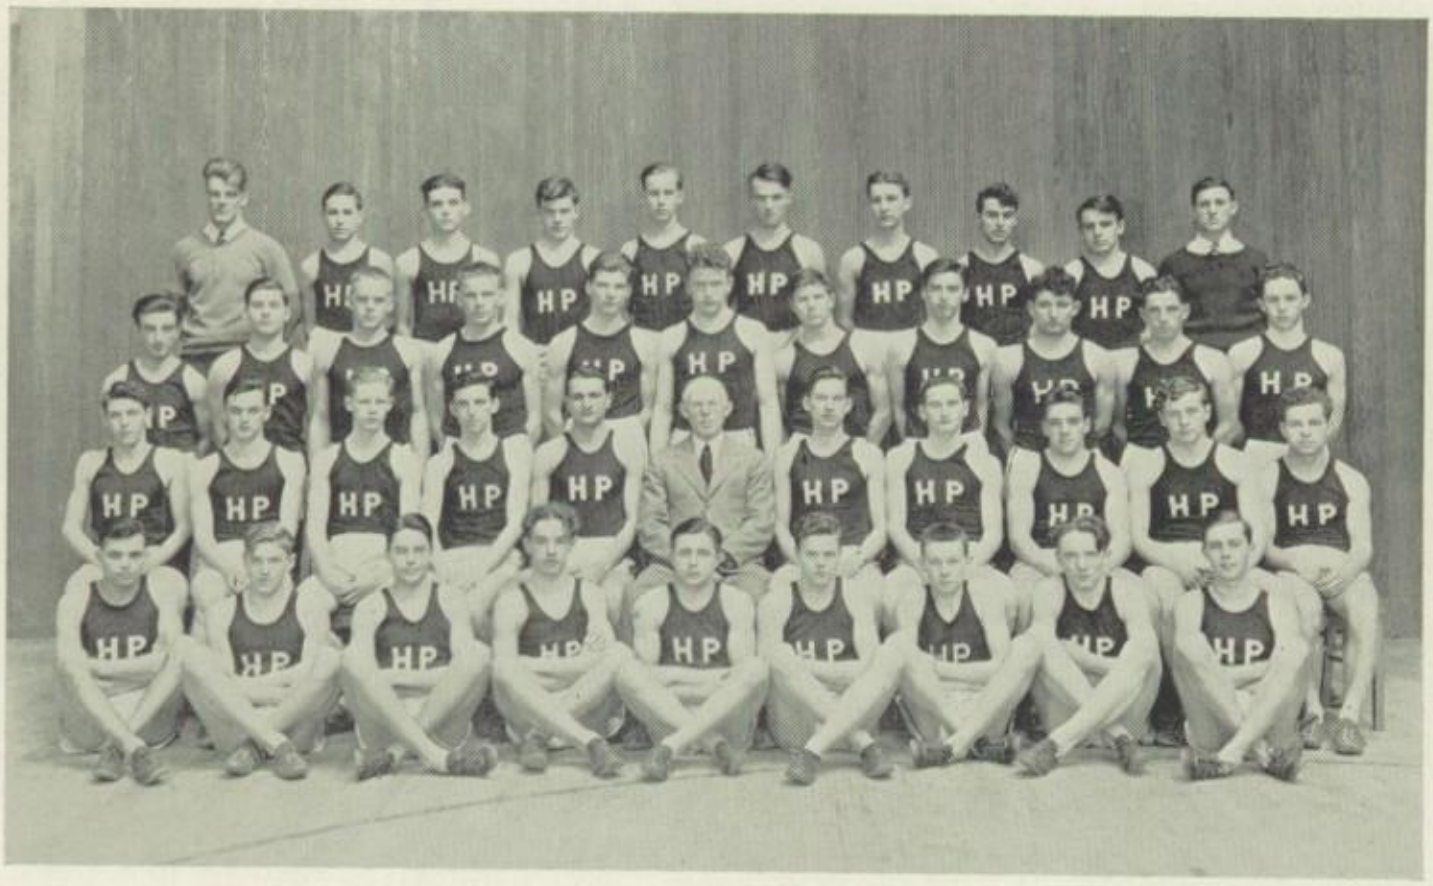
FOOTBALL

The charges of Skip Sherlock started off the season by taking on the strong "Southie" eleven. The Parkers showed they had what it takes, although they came out on the bottom of a 6–0 score. Going into the Charlestown game the Sherlock clan settled down and took the Bunker Hill boys to camp, 13–7. Both Johnnie Cooper and Don Larson starred that day as they eached romped sixty yards for touchdowns. The Brighton-Hyde Park affair was quite the opposite with the former rubbing it in 19–0. Hyde Park's hard playing took the spunk out of East Boston and the game ended in 0–0 deadlock. The Jamaica Plain-Hyde Park rivalry ended in a 7–7 tie with Cooper, Skip's only real star, stealing the limelight by his last quarter rushes which ended in a touchdown. Then came the Turkey Day game between Milton and Hyde Park. Time and time again the Black and Blue marched up the field only to have a penalty put them back. Cooper finally found an opening and swivel-hipped his way from his own "40" to a score. Milton scored twice in the second half due to numerous penalties tacked on Hyde Park. "Red" Shindul, the star lineman, whose consistant playing throughout the season was the cause of many gains, again came through by his beautiful block which enabled Cooper to score the lone touchdown.



TRACK

From a large turnout of untried boys together with a few returning veterans Coach Sherlock moulded another District Track Championship Team to regain the crown lost the previous year.

Led by Captain John Walantis, who scored in the Class A Dash, the boys scored in every event of the seventeen on the card. Fred Seeley easily outran the field in the 600 and won a hard fought second in the Reggies. Teammates Don Larsen and Jim Pagliuca ran one-two in the 1000 and finished second and third in the Reggies. John Cooper, who came out late, surprised all by winning a well-planned 300 against experienced opponents.

In Class B, Warren Drury's record breaking 600 was the highlight of the District Meet. Due to unfortunate circumstances he was unable to run in the Reggies. Frank Gabriel finished third in the 600. Jim Ryan, a coming 300 star, won his event in the Districts and finished second in the Reggies.

In Class C, the two hurdlers, Harry Ledbury and Edgar Winslow, finished first and second. Leonard Doucette, a fast boy, finished second in the 220. Terry Geoghegan, another coming star, won the quarter-mile.

In Class D, we find Shorty Mahon our only District and Reggie winner who won the hurdles in both meets and in doing so equalled the Reggie record three times.

Senior boys prominent in track were: Arno, Civitarese, Cooper, Cronin, Drury, Gabriel, Griffin, Megliola, Pagluica, Ryan, Seeley, and Wahlstrom.

BASEBALL

As the cry "play ball" was sounded, out came a very promising Hyde Park nine. Led by Captain Johnnie Cooper and a few other veterans, the team began to get under way. Veterans from last season are Renzi, Whalen, Corbett, Cooper, Findlay, Civitarese and Stecklun. Although the team is just rounding into shape, Mr. Sherlock has an outlook which is very pleasing. The Black and Blue took on Mansfield High as a starter and proved they were in a higher class. They next went up to Exeter and although playing a semi-college team only lost by a score of 7–3. Gene Renz, our much talked about outfielder, is perhaps the hardest hitter in the outfit and caused Exeter quite a bit of trouble. Our pitchers are fairly good, Stecklun being the best. Cooper's brilliant work on the field and at the bat makes him an "All Boston" possibility. The rest of the infield is composed of Whalen, DeSantis, and Findlay who manage to keep the holes well blocked. "Tom" Campbell and his Memorial warriors were next to invade the Readville diamond and scalped the Parkers by a score of 7–1. The team looked pretty bad that day although DiMartino, our star catcher managed to catch hold of two pitches and send them both by the opposition. The season is young and when the boys get clicking together there is bound to be trouble for the enemy.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR GIRLS

Gym has always been one of our most popular and most profitable courses. This has been due in general to the nature of the course and in particular to the leadership of our physical training director, Miss Agnes S. Thompson. The work of Miss Thompson is brought to fruition in the annual demonstration of the work of the girls in physical education and in participation in the events of prize-drill day.

Calisthenics, dancing, marching, and acrobatics feature the work of the year and help to give our girls the health and charm that is theirs. Tennis, badminton, basketball, and baseball are enjoyed by those who are sports-minded and provide many an hour of recreation and exercise.

Above is a picture of the girls who were leaders in the various girls' gym activities and who were most helpful to Miss Thompson throughout the year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The basketball team of Senior girls was organized in the fall of 1934. Most of the girls started in without knowledge of the game, but were ably coached by the Senior girls at that time. During the three years that the girls have played, many fine games have been held. No games with other schools have ever been played, but only between the girls themselves, and the Juniors and Sophomores. Due to the many activities in their Senior year the girls play only one afternoon a week. The squad is divided into two teams. Team one is made up of girls who have played regularly throughout the Senior year. Team two is made up of girls who have played in many of the games but have not been regular in attendance. Credit is due to Miss Sharkey who has supervised their games on many occasions and also to Jeanne Bolan, who has been their student coach. The following girls have been prominent on the first team:—Margaret Barton, Mildred Carpenter, Deborah Clifford, Mary Gaffney, Corinne Holden, Jeanette Johnston, Marjorie Lawler, Loretta McDonald, Emma Pittman, Mildred Smith, Dorothy Wysocki. Among those on the second team are:—Jean Albani, Winifred Aykroyd, Ida Brugnetti, Dorothy Drislane, Anna Manick, Anna Mercanti, Helen Pierce.

THE CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club was first organized in February, 1936 and a constitution was drawn up by the members of the constitution committee. The purpose of this club is to awake i and promote an interest in the classics; to emphasize the value of Latin and to bring to light the classics' charm and stirring qualities.

The Classical Club of 1937 met on February first of that year and elected the following officers: President, Edwin Jewett; Vice President, Marjorie Lawlor; Treasurer, Joan McCarthy; and Secretary, Mary O'Connor. The club met on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. At the meetings Miss Anna Doyle, faculty supervisor, gave interesting talks on her trip to Europe. She spoke on her travels in France, Italy, Ireland and England.

JUNIOR RED CROSS LEAGUE

The Red Cross was organized in 1935. The scheme has been to have two representatives from each Senior and Junior room and one from each Sophomore room. The officers for 1936 were: President, William Sawtelle; Secretary, Anna Mercanti; Treasurer, Mildred McDonald; Corresponding Secretary, Marguerite Giles. The work of the league has been to assist less-fortunates by providing recreational matter. During the Thanksgiving season they aided in preparing food baskets. During Christmas, the representatives made personal appeals for cash donations. After Christmas, appeals were made for Christmas cards and the following year these were used for making booklets and these, in turn, were sent to headquarters for distribution. Rag dolls were made at the same time. Then, the league gathered together a large number of magazines to be sent to veterans. The concluding meeting was in June, at which time, officers for 1937–38 were elected and a social held. Miss Trommer and Miss Cohen have been the faculty advisers.

Active Seniors were: Eleanor Spadano, Mildred McDonald, Wilhelmina Senger, Helen Pierce, Jennie Campia, Patricia Quigley, William Sawtelle, Anna Mercanti, Dorothy Wysocki.

DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club, under the capable supervision of Mr. Lahive, had a very interesting and successful year. The officers of the club were: President, Joseph Coughlin; Vice President, Patricia Quigley; Secretary, Evelyn Grant; Sergeant-at-Arms, Thomas Coan.

The aim of Mr. Lahive is to train these members to be able to speak well in public and also to carry on a good argument by speaking with meaning and persuasion. At almost every meeting a prepared debate was delivered. Some of the subjects and their debaters were as follows: "Resolved that there should be no child labor," was argued on by George Bacher and Arnie Lofgren; "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished," was argued on by Joseph Coughlin and Chester Derzanski; "Resolved that the Supreme Court should be changed to fit this era of times," was debated on by Ruth Maxwell and Bertha Jenkins; "Resolved that girls should wear uniforms to school," was debated on by Patricia Quigley and Agnes Roycroft; "Resolved that public utilities should be owned and operated by the city instead of by private owners," was debated on by Louise Ormond and Arnie Lofgren; "Resolved that moving pictures are detrimental to the public," was discussed by Bertha Jenkins and Ruth Maxwell; "Resolved that the average age for leaving school should be raised," was debated upon by Evelyn Grant and Caroline Baer.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club has now been in existence for three years. It was organized with the purpose of giving to those pupils interested in the French language, a better understanding and appreciation of France, its people, customs, and language.

During its meetings this year various members of the club, under the direction of Mr. Buckley, have presented plays and dialogues, which have proven interesting as well as educational. The club has also been favored with short talks by Miss Fisher, Miss Cohen, Mr. D'Amato and Mr. Buckley. On May 24, the club presented a moving picture on Paris in the hall, to which all pupils interested were invited.

On the meeting of February 9, the following officers were elected: President, Anna Musyka, First Vice President, Francis Bagge; Second Vice President, Robert Drinan, Secretary, Cecilia Kowaleski; Treasurer, Arnold Swanson. This year the club consisted of thirty-two members of which the Senior class members were: Jean Albani, Francis Bagge, Helen Connolly, Leo Devine, Dorothy Drislane, Corinne Holden, Cecilia Kowaleski, Loretta Mayer, Loretta McDonald, Anna Mercanti, Anna Musyka, Vincent Pasciuto, Josephine Phyllis Smith, Arnold Swanson, Charlotte Toland, Barbara White, Frances Cullen, and Franklin Gabriel.

SPEED CLUB

In January of each year the Speed Club, under the supervision of Mr. Petrie, is formed for the purpose of making high-grade stenographers of all members. In order to gain admission to this club, it is necessary to take notes at 100 words a minute and transcribe them with a high degree of accuracy. The club makes it possible for the superior pupils to advance rapidly, and thereby have a thorough preparation for taking Civil Service or other examinations. The meetings are held weekly in Room 109.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club of 1936–37 met first in the latter part of October. From then on every second and fourth Thursday they could have been found in the library. At Christmas time they presented "The Music Box." May 14th three one-act plays, "Sauce For the Goslings," "Seven to One," and "The Contest Play" were played to an enthusiastic audience. The following took part: Robert Edwards, Deborah Clifford, Robert Lutz, Ruth Farnham, Jeanette Bolan, Doris Rich, Henry Shuman, Warren Drurry, Ann O'Connor, Charlotte Toland, Clare Burns, Beverly McPhee, Barbara White, Mary Gaffney, Anna Mercanti, and Edna McCarthy.

The members of the club wish to extend to Miss Tibbets their appreciation of the help she has so willingly given them throughout the year.

The officers are: President, Robert Lutz; Vice President, Adelaide Innes, Waren Drury; Treasurer, Robert Edwards; Secretary, Ruth Farnham.

SENIOR CLASS

The Junior Class was led this year by Joseph Coughlin as President, Ethel Wold as Vice President, Arlene Topham as Secretary, and Mary Finn, Treasurer. Each one of these class officers, the social committee and Junior Class pupils helped to make this year a success.

This year the Juniors ranked very high in school activities with such Juniors as Mary St. George who is our school representative for the Junior Red Cross League, Joseph Coughlin, President of the Debating Club, Thomas Coan, also a Debating Club officer, Mary O'Connor, secretary of the Classical Club, and Robert Whalen, who won the Oratorical Contest.

Juniors prominent in school athletics were: Terry Geoghegan, Gertsen, Shindul, Harlow, Saunders, Anderson, Ciccocioppo, Ryan, Ledbury, Mahon, Thurston, Becherer, Ferazzi, Doucette, Ross, Winslow, Coughlin, Donovan, Whalen, DeSantis, Laughlin, Deneen, Corbett, and Welch.

Many Sophomores were active in school affairs this year, especially in athletics. Prominent in school sports were: Larson, Bamberg, DiMartino, Lorsodo, Kilillea, Rocheleau, and Powers. The Amateur Show and the Senior Revue gave an opportunity for some members of this class to display their talent.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Offers a broad program of college subjects serving as a foundation for the understanding of modern culture, social relations, and technical achievement. The purpose of this program is to give the student a liberal and cultural education and a vocational competence which fits him to enter some specific type of useful employment.

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Offers a college program with broad and thorough training in the principles of business with specialization in ACCOUNTING, BANKING AND FINANCE, or BUSINESS MANAGEMENT. Modern methods of instruction, including lectures, solution of business problems, class discussions, professional talks by business executives, and motion pictures of manufacturing processes, are used.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Provides complete college programs in Engineering with professional courses in the fields of CIVIL, MECHANICAL (WITH DIESEL, AERONAUTICAL and AIR CONDITIONING OPTIONS), ELECTRICAL, CHEMICAL, INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING, and ENGINEERING ADMINISTRATION. General engineering courses are pursued during the freshman year; thus the student need not make a final decision as to the branch of engineering in which he wishes to specialize until the beginning of the sophomore year.

CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

The Co-operative Plan, which is available to upperclassmen in all courses, provides for a combination of practical industrial experience with classroom instruction. Under this plan the student is able to earn a portion of his school expenses as well as to make business contacts which prove valuable in later years.
